April 21, 2000

Susan K. Nichols, Esq.
Special Deputy Attorney General
P.O. Box 629
Raleigh, NC 27602-0629

Dear Ms. Nichols:

This refers to the amendments to Title 8, Chapter 10 (2000) of the Administrative Code, which require, in those counties whose voting systems permit such rotation, candidate name rotation on primary election ballots and that paper ballots or other voting systems may be replaced only by a method of voting which permits candidate name rotation, for the State of North Carolina, submitted to the Attorney General pursuant to Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. 1973c. We received your submission on February 23, 2000; supplemental information was received on March 30, 2000.

The Attorney General does not interpose any objection to the specified changes. However, we note that Section 5 expressly provides that the failure of the Attorney General to object does not bar subsequent litigation to enjoin the enforcement of the changes. See the Procedures for the Administration of Section 5 (28 C.F.R. 51.41).

We note that, because of the imminence of the May 2, 2000, primary election, these amendments were adopted as temporary rules. If, upon final adoption, the rules are amended such that they include additional changes affecting voting, those changes would be subject to Section 5 review.

Since the court in Sutherland v. Hunt, No. 1:97CV01223 (M.D.N.C. Nov. 12, 1998) required these changes to be submitted to the Attorney General under Section 5, we are providing a copy of this letter to the court and counsel of record in that case.

Sincerely,

Joseph D. Rich
Acting Chief, Voting Section

Statement of the Subject Matter: "Customer-bank communication terminals" and "limitations" (usually, "ATMs" or "automated teller machines").

Reason for Proposed Action: These rules were promulgated before enactment of the Riegle-Neal Interstate Banking and Branching Act of 1994 (Pub. L. No. 103-328, 108 Stat. 2338). Riegle-Neal pre-empted certain state laws which restricted interstate branching. Market response to this federal law change combined with the tremendous changes in electronic technology and the acceptance by consumers of automated transactions have rendered these two regulations obsolete and impracticable.

TITLE 15A - DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENT AND NATURAL RESOURCES

Notice is hereby given in accordance with G.S. 150B-21.2 that the DENR - Environmental Management Commission intends to amend the rule cited as 15A NCAC 2B .0311. Notice of Rule-making Proceedings was published in the Register on April 3, 2000.

Proposed Effective Date: April 1, 2001

A Public Hearing will be conducted at 6:00 p.m. on July 18, 2000 at the Council Chambers, 145 SE Broad Street, Southern Pines, NC 28387.

Reason for Proposed Action: Proposed Reclassification of Mill Creek WS-III and WS-III B to WS-III HQW and WS-III B HQW, respectively - Several property owners living near Mill Creek in Moore County (Cape Fear River Basin) have requested that the stream be reclassified to include the supplemental High Quality Waters (HQW) classification. The Biological Assessment Unit evaluated Mill Creek in 1998 and determined that it did qualify for HQW.

The Mill Creek watershed is currently within a WS-II watershed and flows into the Little River which is currently classified as HQW. Some lake sections of the watershed requested for reclassification are also currently Class B waters. Adding the HQW supplemental classification will lower the allowable density of development for development activities that are within one mile and draining to the HQW and only for those activities that require a Sedimentation and Erosion Control Plan. HQW will also require stricter treatment standards for any new or expanded discharges and will not allow any new single family wastewater discharges. The table below compares the existing and proposed classifications. The local ordinances in the affected municipalities (Southern Pines, Vass, and Whispering Pines) do not allow High Density development.

Classification	Area Affected	Low Density Development Option	Stream Buffers	Allowable Wastewater Discharges
WS-III (Existing)	Watershed Outside of Critical Area	1 DU/0.5 acre or 24% BUA	30 foot	Domestic and Non-Process Industrial
Class B (Existing)	Receiving Stream	No Restrictions	None required	Domestic and Industrial
HQW (Proposed Supplemental)	Within 1 Mile and Draining to the Classified Waters	1 DU/1 acre or 12% BUA*	30 foot*	Domestic and Industrial (stricter standards for new or expanded)

*for development activities that require a Sedimentation and Erosion Control Plan

DU = Dwelling Unit

- (1) Cane Creek [Index No. 16-21-(1)] from source to a point 0.5 mile north of N.C. Hwy. 54 (Cane Reservoir Dam) including the Cane Creek Reservoir and all tributaries has been reclassified from Class WS-III to WS-I.
- (2) Morgan Creek [Index No. 16-41-1-(1)] to the University Lake dam including University Lake and all tributaries has been reclassified from Class WS-III to WS-I.

(d) The Schedule of Classifications and Water Quality Standards for the Cape Fear River Basin has been amended effective July 1, 1988 by the reclassification of Crane Creek (Crains Creek) [Index No. 18-23-16-(1)] from source to mouth of Beaver Creek including all tributaries from C to WS-III.

(e) The Schedule of Classifications and Water Quality Standards for the Cape Fear River Basin has been amended effective January 1, 1990 as follows:

- (1) Intracoastal Waterway (Index No. 18-87) from southern edge of White Oak River Basin to western end of Permuda Island (a line from Morris Landing to Atlantic Ocean), from the eastern mouth of Old Topsail Creek to the southwestern shore of Howe Creek and from the southwest mouth of Shinn Creek to channel marker No. 153 including all tributaries except the King Creek Restricted Area, Hardison Creek, Old Topsail Creek, Mill Creek, Futch Creek and Pages Creek were reclassified from Class SA to Class SA ORW.

- (3) Masonboro Sound ORW Area which includes all waters between the Barrier Islands and the mainland from a line running from the southwest mouth of Shinn Creek at the Intracoastal Waterway to the southern shore of Masonboro Inlet and a line running from the Intracoastal Waterway Channel marker No. 153 to the southside of the Carolina Beach Inlet was reclassified from Class SA to Class SA ORW.

(f) The Schedule of Classifications and Water Quality Standards for the Cape Fear River Basin has been amended effective January 1, 1990 as follows: Big Alamance Creek [Index No. 16-19-(1)] from source to Lake Mackintosh Dam including all tributaries has been reclassified from Class WS-III NSW to Class WS-II NSW.

(g) The Schedule of Classifications and Water Quality Standards for the Cape Fear River Basin was amended effective August 3, 1992 with the reclassification of all water supply waters (waters with a primary classification of WS-I, WS-II or WS-III). These waters were reclassified to WS-I, WS-II, WS-III, WS-IV or WS-V as defined in the revised water supply protection rules, (15A NCAC 2B .0100, .0200 and .0300) which became effective on August 3, 1992. In some cases, streams with primary classifications other than WS were reclassified to a WS classification due to their proximity and linkage to water supply waters. In other cases, waters were reclassified from a WS classification to an alternate appropriate primary classification after being identified as downstream of a water supply intake or identified as not being used for water supply purposes.

(h) The Schedule of Classifications and Water Quality Standards for the Cape Fear River Basin was amended effective June 1, 1994 as follows:

- (1) The Black River from its source to the Cape Fear River [Index Nos. 18-68-(0.5), 18-68-(3.5) and 18-65-(11.5)] was reclassified from Classes C Sw and C Sw HQW to Class C Sw ORW.
- (2) The South River from Big Swamp to the Black River [Index Nos. 18-68-12-(0.5) and 18-68-12(11.5)] was reclassified from Classes C Sw and C Sw HQW to Class C Sw ORW.
- (3) Six Runs Creek from Quewhiffle Swamp to the Black River [Index No. 18-68-2] was reclassified from Class C Sw to Class C Sw ORW.

(i) The Schedule of Classifications and Water Quality Standards for the Cape Fear River Basin was amended effective September 1, 1994 with the reclassification of the Deep River [Index No. 17-(36.5)] from the Town of Gulf-Goldston water supply intake to US highway 421 including associated tributaries from Class C to Classes C, WS-IV and WS-IV CA.

(j) The Schedule of Classifications and Water Quality Standards for the Cape Fear River Basin was amended effective August 1, 1998 with the revision to the primary classification for portions of the Deep River [Index No. 17-(28.5)] from Class WS-IV to Class WS-V, Deep River [Index No. 17-(41.5)] from Class WS-IV to Class C, and the Cape Fear River [Index 18-(10.5)] from Class WS-IV to Class WS-V.

(k) The Schedule of Classifications and Water Quality Standards for the Cape Fear River Basin was amended effective April 1, 1999 with the reclassification of Buckhorn Creek (Harris Lake)[Index No. 18-7-(3)] from the backwater of Harris Lake to the Dam at Harris Lake from Class C to Class WS-V.

(l) The Schedule of Classifications and Water Quality Standards for the Cape Fear River Basin was amended effective April 1, 1999 with the reclassification of the Deep River [Index No. 17-(4)] from the dam at Oakdale-Cotton Mills, Inc. to the dam at Randleman Reservoir (located 1.1 mile upstream of U.S. Hwy 220 Business), and including tributaries from Class C and Class B to Class WS-IV and Class WS-IV & B. Streams within the Randleman Reservoir Critical Area have been reclassified to WS-IV CA. The Critical Area for a WS-IV reservoir is defined as 0.5 mile and draining to the normal pool elevation of the reservoir. All waters within the Randleman Reservoir Water Supply Watershed are within a designated Critical Water Supply Watershed and are subject to a special management strategy specified in 15A NCAC 2B .0248.

(m) The Schedule of Classifications and Water Quality Standards for the Cape Fear River Basin was amended effective April 1, 2001 as follows:

- (1) Mill Creek [Index Nos. 18-23-11-(1), 18-23-11-(2), 18-23-11-3, 18-23-11-(5)] from its source to the Little River, including all tributaries from Class WS III NSW and Class WS III B NSW to Class WS-I NSW HQW and Class WS-III B NSW HQW.

Notice is hereby given in accordance with G.S. 150B-21. that the DENR -Environmental Management Commission intends to amend the rule cited as 15A NCAC 02B .0313. Notice of Rule-making Proceedings was published in the Register on April 3, 2000.

A Public Hearing will be conducted at 6:00 p.m. on July 20, 2000 at the Council Chambers of Town Hall, E. Church Street, Yanceyville, NC 27379.

Reason for Proposed Action: The Town of Yanceyville has requested that Fullers Creek Water Supply Watershed in Yanceyville, Caswell County (Roanoke River Basin) be reclassified from WS-II to WS-III. The Caswell County Board of Commissioners concurs with the Town's request. No Public Water Supply has confirmed that the Town of anceyville no longer uses the reservoir on Fullers Creek as their primary water supply intake. The Town's current water supply intake is upriver on Country Line Creek. The Public Water Supply regional staff as well as the town administration prefer that the Fuller Creek water supply intake be retained for use as an emergency water supply intake rather than removing the water supply classification altogether.

PROPOSED RULES

Reclassification would change the permitted density of development, essentially allowing development of a proposed elementary school in the existing protected area of the watershed. The watershed covers an area of approximately 1000 acres, which is zoned residential and the Town has no plans to change that zoning. The table below compares the requirements of the existing and proposed classifications.

Classification	Area Affected	Low Density Development Option	High Density Development Option	Allowable Wastewater Discharges
WS-II (Existing)	½ mile Critical Area	1 DU/2 acre or 6% BUA	6-24% BUA	General Permits

Notice is hereby given in accordance with G.S. 150B-21.2 that the DENR - Environmental Management Commission intends to amend the rule cited as 15A NCAC 2B .0315. Notice of Rule-making Proceedings was published in the Register on April 3, 2000.

Proposed Effective Date: April 1, 2001

A Public Hearing will be conducted at 6:00 p.m. on July 13, 2000 at the Town Hall, Board Room, 401 Elm Avenue, Wake Forest, NC 27587.

Reason for Proposed Action: Proposed Reclassification of Neuse River from Class C NSW to WS-IV NSW

The Town of Wake Forest has requested that a segment of the Neuse River in Wake County (Neuse River Basin) be reclassified to WS-IV with the intention that Wake Forest may meet its demand for a long-term drinking water supply. Division of Water Quality (DWQ) collected water samples from the Neuse River in November 1999, and the Public Water Supply Section of the Division of Environmental Health has reviewed the results and confirmed that the water is suitable for treatment for water supply purposes.

The segment of the river requested for reclassification is currently Class C NSW and extends from the Falls Lake Dam to a point on the Neuse River near US-1 (Burlington Mills Plant). Included in the proposed watershed is part of Richland Creek, a Neuse tributary which originates near the Town of Youngsville. A WS-IV Critical Area (CA) would be designated to the area 0.5 mile and draining to the intake. The additional regulations that will be required by the reclassification are described in the table below.

PROPOSED RULES

Classification	Area Affected	Low Density Development Option	High Density Development Option*	Allowable Wastewater Discharges	DOT BMPs
Class C (Existing)	Receiving Stream	No Restrictions		Domestic and Industrial (NSW requires additional N&P removal)	Not Required
WS-IV Critical Area (Proposed)	½ mile and Draining to Intake.	1 DU / 0.5 acre or 24% BUA and 30' Buffers	24-50% BUA and 100' Buffers	New Industrial discharges will require additional treatment	Required
WS-IV Protected Area (Proposed)	Rest of Watershed	1 DU / 0.5 acre or 24% BUA and 30' Buffers  Optional: 3 DU / acre or 36% BUA w/o curb and gutter street system	24-70% BUA and 100' Buffers  Optional: 3 DU / acre or 36% BUA w/o curb and gutter street system	Domestic and Industrial	Required

BUA = Built Upon Area

High Density Option requires control of runoff from first 1" of rainfall by engineered stormwater controls. Local governments must assume ultimate responsibility for operation/maintenance of these in a WS-IV.

Proposed Reclassification of Fantasy Lake from WS-II NSW to WS-II CA NSW

The Town of Rolesville and Mr. Doye Sherrill (lake's owner) have jointly requested that Fantasy Lake near Rolesville in Wake County (Neuse River Basin) be reclassified as WS-II Critical Area (CA) NSW. DWQ collected water samples from the lake in November 1999, and the Public Water Supply Section of the Division of Environmental Health has reviewed the results and confirmed that the water is suitable for treatment for water supply purposes.

Fantasy Lake is a quarry, abandoned for mining purposes when it filled with water. The sole source of water, other than rainfall, is believed to be groundwater. The quarry is on a ridge line and has no observable surface water flowing into it. Overland drainage is minimal, and the land around the lake is mainly undeveloped. Fantasy Lake is located within the WS-II NSW Little River watershed. Reclassification will essentially allow a water supply intake for the Town of Rolesville to be placed in the lake. The table below compares the development densities allowed for the existing and proposed classifications.

Classification	Area Affected	Low Density Development Option	High Density Development Option
WS-II (Existing)	Existing watershed	1 DU/ acre or 12% BUA	12-30% BUA
WS-II CA (Proposed)	Within ½ mile and draining to Fantasy Lake	1 DU/2 acre or 6% BUA	6-24% BUA

DU = Dwelling Unit

BUA = Built Upon Area

Comment Procedures: The purpose of this announcement is to encourage those interested in this proposal to provide rule cited as 16 NCAC 6G .0305 and repeal the rule cited as 16 NCAC 6G .0310. Notice of Rule-making Proceedings was not required by G.S. 115C-17(a).

Proposed Effective Date: October 1, 2000

A Public Hearing will be conducted at 9:30 a.m. on June 30, 2000 at the Education Building, Room 224, 301 N. Wilmington St., Raleigh, NC 27601.

(c) Schools shall be accountable for student performance and achievement. To be included in accountability measures for the growth standard, a student in grade three through grade eight must:

- (1) have a pre-test score and a post-test score in reading and mathematics. Students in grades four or seven with writing scores shall also be included. To be included in accountability measures for the growth standard, a student in grade three through grade eight must:
  - (A) have a pre-test score and a post-test score in reading and mathematics. Students in grades four or seven with writing scores shall also be included; and
  - (2) (B) have been in membership more than one-half of the instructional period (91 of 180 days for regular schedules or 46 of 90 days for semester or block schedules); days).
- (3)(2) Students in grades 9-12 shall be included in the performance standard composite:
  - (A) if they have reading, mathematics, or writing writing, Computer Skills, or EOC scores without reference to pretest scores or length of membership;
  - (B) if they have been in membership 160 of 180 days; and
  - (C) if they have scores for all tests used in the prediction formula.

(d) The SBE shall include in the accountability system on the same basis as all other public schools each alternative school with an identification number assigned by the Department. Test scores for students who attend programs or classes in a facility that does not have a separate school number shall be reported to and included in the students' home schools.

(e) Each K-8 school shall test at least 98% of its eligible students. If a school fails to test at least 98% of its eligible students for two consecutive school years, the SBE may designate the school as low-performing and may target the school for assistance and intervention. Each school shall make public the percent of eligible students that the school tests.

(f) High schools shall test at least 95% of enrolled students who are subject to EOC tests and the NC Comprehensive Test, regardless of exclusions. High schools that test fewer than 95% of enrolled students for two consecutive years may be designated as low-performing by the SBE.

(f)(g) All students who are following the standard course of study and who are not eligible for exemption as set out in paragraph (g) of this Rule shall take the SBE-adopted tests. Every student, including those students who are exempted from testing, shall complete or have completed an answer document (except in writing). Both the school and the LEA shall maintain records on the exemptions of students from testing. The Department may audit these records.

(g)(h) Individual students may be exempted excluded from SBE-adopted tests as follows:

- (1) Limited English proficient students may be exempted excluded for up to two years beginning with the time of enrollment if the student's English language proficiency has been assessed as novice/low to intermediate/low in listening, reading, and writing. A student whose English language proficiency has been assessed as intermediate/high or advanced may be exempted from tests in which the student writes responses for up to two years. LEAs shall use other assessment methods for exempted students to demonstrate that these students are progressing in English and other subject areas.

- (2) Students with disabilities may be exempted excluded on an individual basis if the exemption exclusion is stated in the student's IEP and if the student is not following the standard course of study: a functional curriculum as defined by 16 NCAC 6D .0501(3). If a student with disabilities is exempted from testing excluded from participation in a statewide assessment in one subject but is included in testing for the remaining subjects, that student shall be included in the school's 98 percent tested requirement. The parent or guardian, or the student if over age 18, shall sign a written consent for test exemption exclusion that certifies that the parent, guardian, or student understands that the exemption exclusion for the eighth grade tests may cause the student not to be eligible to receive a high school diploma.

(h)(i) LEAs shall administer alternative assessments to students who are exempted excluded from testing participation in a regular statewide assessment to demonstrate mastery of course or specific curriculum content.

(i)(j) The SBE shall calculate a school's expected growth growth/gain composite in student performance using the following process:

- (1) Calculate the indices for writing in grades 4 and 7 (separately) for the three most current years for achievement levels as defined by 16 NCAC 6C .0103(a)(1) as follows:
  - (A) Multiply the percent of students at level IV by 3;
  - (B) Multiply the percent of students at level III by 2;
  - (C) Determine the percent of students at level II;
  - (D) Add the three numbers together and divide by three;
  - (E) Determine the difference in scores that is greatest by subtracting the index two years ago from the most recent index and then by subtracting the index for the prior school year from the most recent index. Multiply the resulting difference by one half;
  - (F) Subtract 0.1 from the difference;
  - (G) Divide by the associated standard deviation. The result is the standard gain for writing.
- (2) Review expected and exemplary growth standards for reading and mathematics at each grade level included in the state testing program: all grades and subjects, and review the predicted EOC mean for expected standard gain and the exemplary standard gain for EOC courses.

- (3) Determine the actual growth in reading and mathematics at each grade level included in the state testing program, using data on groups of matched students: students, and determine the actual EOC mean for EOC tests using data on the same groups of students from one point in time to another point in time.
- (4) Subtract the expected growth from the actual growth in reading and mathematics at each grade level included in the state testing program. In writing, one tenth (.1) must be subtracted from the greater of the two writing differences: grades 3 through 8 and grade 10; then subtract the predicted EOC mean from the actual EOC mean for EOC tests.
- (5) Divide the differences for reading, writing, and mathematics by the standard deviations of the respective differences in growth growth/gain at each grade level and for each EOC to determine the standardized standard growth score.
- (6) The SBE shall calculate a school's gain composite in college prep/college tech prep using the following process:
  - (A) Compute the percent of graduates who receive diplomas who completed either course of study in the current accountability year. Students shall be counted only once if they complete more than one course of study;
  - (B) Find the baseline, which is the average of the two prior school years' percent of graduates who received diplomas and who completed a course of study;
  - (C) Subtract the baseline from the current year's percentage;
  - (D) Subtract 0.1, unless the percentages are both 100. If both percentages are 100, the gain is zero;
  - (E) Divide by the associated standard deviation. The result is the standard gain for college prep/college tech prep.
- (7) The SBE shall calculate a school's expected gain composite in the competency passing rate by comparing the grade 10 competency passing rate on a matched set of students to the grade 8 passing rate for the same group of students.
  - (A) Subtract the grade 8 rate from the grade 10 rate;
  - (B) Subtract 0.1;
  - (C) Divide by the standard deviation. The result is the standard gain in competency passing rate.
- (8) Determine the composite expected gain in English II for a high school as follows:
  - (A) Compute the English II index for the current year and for the two previous years by multiplying the percentage of students at level IV by 3, the percentage of students at level III by 2, and the percentage of students at level II by 1. Add the products and divide by 3 to obtain the EOC index;

- (B) Compute the EOC indices for the same three years;
- (C) Determine the baseline by adding Year One and Year Two and dividing by 2;
- (D) Subtract the baseline from the current year's index;
- (E) Subtract 0.1 from the difference;
- (F) Divide the result by the associated standard deviation of change. This is the standard expected gain for English II.

6)(9) Add The SBE shall calculate a school's expected growth/gain composite by adding the expected standardized standard growth scores for reading and mathematics at each grade level from grade 3 to 8; and for 8 and 10, EOC gain, writing at grades 4 and 7; 7, gain in competency passing rate, gain in college prep/college tech prep, change in dropout rate, and English II gain, as they may apply in a given school. If the resulting number is zero or above, the school has met made the expected growth standard.

(10) The SBE shall compute exemplary growth using the exemplary growth standard (b, x 1.10) in the accountability formula for grades 3 through 8 and 8 to 10 in reading and mathematics, and (b, x 1.05) for predicted EOC means. There is no exemplary standard for writing, competency passing rate, or college prep/college tech prep gain.

(11) To determine the composite score for exemplary standards:

- (A) Subtract the exemplary growth growth/gain from the actual growth growth/gain standard in reading and mathematics at each grade level included in the state testing program: grades 3 through 8 and 10; subtract the predicted exemplary EOC mean from the actual EOC mean for each EOC test. In writing, one tenth (.1) must be subtracted from the greater of the two writing differences;
- (B) Divide the difference in growth growth/gain for reading, writing, and mathematics by the standard deviations of the respective differences in growth growth/gain at each grade level to determine the standardized growth standard growth/gain score;
- (C) Add the exemplary standardized growth standard growth/gain scores for reading and mathematics at each grade level from grade 3 to 8, and for 8 and 10, EOC gain, expected standard gain in writing at grades 4 and 7; 7, Competency Passing Rate, Dropout Rate, and for College Prep/College Tech Prep, and exemplary standard gain in English II. If the resulting number is zero or above, the school has met the exemplary growth standard.

(j)(k) If school officials believe that the school's growth standards were unreasonable due to specific, compelling reasons, the school may appeal its growth standards to the SBE. The SBE shall appoint an appeals committee composed of a panel selected from the compliance commission to review written appeals from schools. The school officials must clearly document the circumstances that made the goals unrealistic and must submit its appeal to the SBE within 30 days of receipt of notice from the Department of the school's performance. The appeals committee shall review all appeals and shall make recommendations to the SBE. The SBE shall make the final decision on the reasonableness of the growth goals.

.0310 ANNUAL PERFORMANCE STANDARDS, GRADES 9-12

(a) The definitions contained in Rule .0305 of this Section are incorporated into this Rule by reference thereto. In addition, the following definitions shall apply:

- (1) ~~"Composite expected gain" is equivalent to "expected growth" as used in 16 NCAC 6G .0305;~~
- (2) ~~"Exemplary gain" is equivalent to "exemplary growth" as used in Rule .0305 of this Section;~~
- (3) ~~"Exemplary target index" is the score a school must attain to meet its exemplary growth standard.~~
- (4) ~~"High school performance composite" is the weighted average of the percentages of students in a high school who score at or above level III on the end-of-course (EOC) tests for Algebra I, Biology, Economic Legal and Political Systems (ELPS), English I, English II, and U.S. History for the current school year. It is determined by adding the number of students at or above level III on each of the EOC tests and dividing that sum by the total of students who have valid scores on each of the tests.~~
- (5) The "standard deviation of change" for computing composite expected gain is as follows:
  - (A) ~~for Algebra I, 7.4;~~
  - (B) ~~for Biology, 6.4;~~
  - (C) ~~for ELPS, 7.9;~~
  - (D) ~~for English I, 5.6;~~
  - (E) ~~for English II, 7.6;~~
  - (F) ~~for U.S. History, 5.7; and~~
  - (G) ~~for College Prep/College Tech Prep (CP/CTP);~~
    - (i) ~~Using data for the 1996-97 school year, determine for each high school the number of graduates who satisfied the requirements for College Prep (only) and the number of graduates who satisfied the requirements for College Tech Prep (only). Add these two numbers together and divide by the total number of graduates at the high school. Multiply the result by 100 to obtain the percentage of graduates who satisfied the requirements of CP/CTP;~~

- (ii) Repeat the first step with data from the 1995-96 school year so that percentages of students who satisfied the CP/CTP requirements are available for these two consecutive years;
- (iii) Subtract the percentage of students who satisfied the CP/CTP requirements in 1995-96 from the percentage of students who satisfied the CP/CTP requirements in 1996-97. This difference is the change (positive or negative) in the percentage of students satisfying the requirements of CP/CTP for the baseline years applicable to the high school accountability model;
- (iv) Average the school change results from step (iii) across all schools;
- (v) Next compute the standard deviation of the school changes by subtracting the average school change computed in step (iv) from each individual school change. Then square each resulting difference. Next add the squared differences across all schools. Finally, divide the sum of squared differences by the number of schools, less one (1.0). The square root of this result is the standard deviation of change.
- (6) The "standard deviation of change" for computing standard exemplary gain is as follows:
  - (A) for Algebra I, 7.3;
  - (B) for Biology, 6.3;
  - (C) for ELPS, 7.8;
  - (D) for English I, 5.5;
  - (E) for English II, 7.5;
  - (F) for U.S. History, 5.6; and
  - (G) for CP/CTP, use the figure computed under Part (a)(5)(G) of this Rule.
- (7) "Standard exemplary gain" is the difference between the exemplary target index (Column I of the worksheet) and the baseline (Column D of the worksheet) divided by a standard deviation so that all components of the composite score shall be equally weighted in the baseline years, which are 1995, 1996, and 1997 for the first six courses and 1997 and 1998 for CP/CTP.

(b) Using the worksheet in this paragraph, the process to determine the composite expected gain for a high school is as follows:

- (1) Compute the EOC index for the first six courses in Column A for the current year and the two previous years by multiplying the percentage of students at level IV by 3, the percentage of students at level III by 2, and the percentage of students at level II by 1. Add the products and divide by 3 to obtain the EOC index for each course.
- (2) Compute the EOC indices for three years for each of these courses and enter the results in Columns A, B, and C. The school years shown in the worksheet are an example of a current calculation and are not the school years to be used in succeeding annual calculations.
- (3) Determine the baseline by adding Columns B and C and dividing by 2. Enter the quotient in Column D.
- (4) Subtract the baseline (Column D) from the current EOC index (Column A). Enter the difference in Column E.
- (5) Subtract 0.1 from each difference in Column E and enter the result in Column F.
- (6) Divide each recentered difference (Column F) by the associated standard deviation of change (Column G). Enter the quotient in Column H. This is the standard expected gain for a given course.
- (7) Compute the composite expected gain for CP/CTP by comparing the current year's percentage of graduates who complete either of the two courses of study with the previous year's percentage. Students shall be counted only once if they complete both courses of study:
  - (A) Enter the percentage of current graduates who have completed either course of study in Column A;
  - (B) Enter the percentages of graduates from the previous school year who completed either course of study in Column B;
  - (C) Subtract Column B from Column A and enter the difference in Column E;
  - (D) Subtract 0.1 from the result in Column E to recenter and enter the result in Column F unless the percentages in Columns A and B are both equal to 100. In that event, enter zero in Column F;
  - (E) Divide the result in Column F by the standard deviation of change and enter the result in Column H.
- (8) Compute the total composite gain by adding the numbers in Column H. If the sum is equal to or greater than zero, the school has met the composite expected gain standard.

- (2) "Developmentally delayed children" means those whose development is delayed in one or more of the following areas: cognitive development; physical development, including vision and hearing; communication, social and emotional; and adaptive skills. The specific level of delay must be:

- (a) for children from birth to 36 months of age, documented by scores one and one-half standard deviations below the mean on standardized tests in at least one of the above areas of development. Or, it may be documented by a 20 percent delay on assessment instruments that yield scores in months; and
- (b) for children from 36 to 60 months of age, documented by test performance two standard deviations below the mean on standardized tests in one area of development or by performance that is one standard deviation below the norm in two areas of development. Or, it may be documented by a 25 percent delay in two areas on assessment instruments that yield scores in months.

- (3) "Early Intervention Services" means those services provided for infants and toddlers specified in Section 303.12 of Subpart A of Part 303 of Title 34 of the Code of Federal Regulations, published January 1, 1992 and incorporated by reference.

(a) For the purposes of these services, "transportation" means assistance in the travel to and from the multidisciplinary evaluation; specified early intervention services provided by certified developmental day centers or other center-based services designed specifically for children with or at risk for disabilities; and speech, physical or occupational therapy, or other early intervention services if provided in a specialized setting away from the child's residence.

(b) Transportation assistance may be provided by staff, existing public or private services, or by the family, who shall be reimbursed for their expenses, in accordance with applicable fee provisions.

(c) For the purposes of these services, "special instruction" means individually designed education and training in the strengths and needs of the child and family as identified in the multidisciplinary evaluation, in which the focus is on the major developmental areas and individual family needs. It occurs in two primary types of settings; home and mainstreamed center-based:

(i) The mainstreamed inclusive center-based settings may be those designed primarily for children with or at risk for disabilities, such as developmental day centers or therapeutic preschools, if they allow for planned and ongoing contact with children without disabilities.

(ii) Mainstreamed Inclusive center-based settings also include those established primarily for children without disabilities, such as preschools, family day care homes, licensed child care centers:

(A) when provided in these programs, special instruction also includes consultation and training for staff on curriculum design, teaching and behavior management strategies, and approaches to modification of the environment to promote learning;

(B) service coordination activities, including assistance to the family in identifying such programs must be provided with special instruction, if requested by the family.

(C) All types of early intervention services shall be provided in natural environments to the maximum extent possible. The provision of early intervention services in a setting other than a natural environment shall occur only when early intervention cannot be achieved satisfactorily in a natural environment.

(4) "Health Services" means those services provided for infants and toddlers specified in Section 303.13 of Subpart A of Part 303 of Title 34 of the Code of Federal Regulations, published June 22, 1989 and incorporated by reference.

(5) "High risk children" means those from birth to 36 months of age for whom there is clinical evidence of conditions which have a high probability of resulting in developmental delay or atypical development and for whom there is clinical evidence that developmental or therapeutic intervention may be necessary. There are two categories of high risk children. These are:

(a) High Risk-Established: Diagnosed, or documented physical or mental conditions which are known to result in developmental delay or atypical development as the child matures. Such conditions include, but need not be limited to the following:

.0803 GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR INFANTS AND TODDLERS

For all facilities serving infants and toddlers with or at risk for developmental disabilities, delays or atypical development, except for respite, there shall be:

(1) an assessment which includes:

- (a) physical (including vision and hearing) communication, cognitive, social and emotional and adaptive skills development, and the requirements set forth in 34 C.F.R. Part 303.344 (a)(2), incorporated by reference;
- (b) a determination of the child's unique strengths and needs in terms of these areas of development and identification of services appropriate to meet those needs;
- (c) if requested by the family, a determination of the resources, priorities and concerns of the family, and the supports and services necessary to enhance the family's capacity to meet the developmental needs of their infant or toddler with or at risk for a disability. The family-focused and directed assessment shall be based on information provided through a personal interview and incorporate the family's description of these resources, priorities, and concerns in this area;
- (d) procedures developed and implemented to ensure participation by the client's family or the legally responsible person;
- (e) no single procedure used as the sole criterion for determining a child's eligibility;
- (f) an integrated assessment process which involves at least two persons, each representing a different discipline or profession, with the specific number and types of disciplines based on the particular needs of the child. Reason for Proposed Action: This rule refers to the use of "controlled substances in emergency kits" in long-term care nursing facilities. There is broad recognition among clinicians who have studied the pathophysiology and management of pain that clinicians often seriously undertreat pain. A request was presented to the Commission for Mental Health, Developmental Disabilities and Substance Abuse Services to approve the proposed amendment to the above rule. The acuity level of nursing facility residents has increased markedly over the past few years. However, the rules governing controlled substances for residents have not been modified in more than 20 years. The requested changes will greatly enhance the ability to meet emergency medical needs of residents, yet maintain adequate safeguards, accountability, and security of emergency medications.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES

The meeting was called to order at 10:05 a.m. with Vice Chairman Sugg presiding. The Vice Chairman asked for any discussion comments, or corrections concerning the minutes of the April 13, 2000 meeting. There being none, the minutes were approved. Chairman Smallwood arrived and began presiding during the first follow-up matter.

FOLLOW-UP MATTERS

10 NCAC 42A .0801 - .0810: DHHS/Social Services Commission - The Office of State Budget reported that these rules carried no substantial economic impact. They were approved with the exception of .0807. This rule was objected to due to lack of statutory authority and ambiguity. It is not clear that the Department of Health and Human Services requirements referenced in this rule have been appropriately adopted as rules. If not, there is no authority to require compliance with them.

10 NCAC 42C .2506: DHHS/Medical Care Commission - The agency requested that this rule remain on the agenda until next month. No action was necessary.

13 NCAC 7F .0601, .0602, .0603, .0604, .0605, and .0606: DEPARTMENT OF LABOR - These rules were returned to the agency pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.12(d).

19A NCAC 3D .0801: TRANSPORTATION/Division of Motor Vehicles - The rewritten rule submitted by the agency was approved by the Commission.

21 NCAC 56 .0503, .0603, .0804, and .0901: N C Board of Examiners of Engineers and Surveyors - The agency responded that they are pursuing legislation to give these rules statutory authority. No action was necessary.

21 NCAC 63 .0101, .0104, .0105, .0204, .0210, .0301, .0401, .0503, .0508, .0601, and .0707: N C Social Work Certification and Licensing Board - The repeals and rewritten rules submitted by the agency were approved by the Commission.

LOG OF FILINGS

Chairman Smallwood presided over the review of the log and all rules were approved with the following exceptions:

NCAC 52B .0206: AGRICULTURE/Board of Agriculture – The Commission objected to this rule due to ambiguity. In (a), it is not clear what period of time is envisioned by the term "recently." It is also not clear what is meant by a "negative official test." Because of ambiguities in .0410, it is not clear what standards will be used in approving livestock markets or equine sales to provide EIA testing. This objection applies to existing language in the rule.

NCAC 52B .0401: AGRICULTURE/Board of Agriculture – The Commission objected to this rule due to lack of statutory authority and ambiguity. The definition of "approved test" in (3) implies that the State Veterinarian can approve tests without going through the rulemaking process or without the standards for approval being set out in the rules. There is no authority for doing so. In (6), it is not clear if an "official test" is the same as "approved test." This objection applies to existing language in the rule.

NCAC 52B .0406: AGRICULTURE/Board of Agriculture – The Commission objected to this rule due to ambiguity. In (b) and (c), it is not clear what is meant by "official negative test."

NCAC 52B .0407: AGRICULTURE/Board of Agriculture – The Commission objected to this rule due to ambiguity. In (d), it is not clear who must approve or what the standards for approval are of a laboratory in North Carolina. In (e), it is not clear what is meant by "official negative test."

NCAC 52B .0409: AGRICULTURE/Board of Agriculture – The Commission objected to this rule due to ambiguity. It is not clear what is meant by "officially" tested.

NCAC 52B .0410: AGRICULTURE/Board of Agriculture – The Commission objected to this rule due to lack of statutory authority and ambiguity. In (a), it is not clear what standards the State Veterinarian will use in approving sales. In (b) and (c), it is not clear what standards he will use in approving veterinarians. In (e), it is not clear what the standards are for approval of permanent facilities and staff. There also is no authority for setting staff qualifications.

NCAC 52B .0411: AGRICULTURE/Board of Agriculture – The Commission objected to this rule due to lack of statutory authority and ambiguity. In (a)(1), it is not clear what tubes are approved. In (b), there is no authority for the State Veterinarian to approve veterinarians.

NCAC 52B .0412: AGRICULTURE/Board of Agriculture – The Commission objected to this rule due to lack of statutory authority and ambiguity. It is not clear what standards the State Veterinarian is to use in granting prior approval for sales of equine only for slaughter. It is also not clear what terms an operator has to agree to comply with. There are none in the rule. There is no authority for the State Veterinarian to set terms outside rulemaking unless there are the standards he will use in the rules.

8 NCAC 10 .0201: SECRETARY OF STATE – The Commission objected to this rule due to ambiguity. In (18), it is not clear what is meant by "an internationally recognized standards organization." In (19), the use of the word "typically" makes unclear when the operational period begins and ends. In (35)(a), it is not clear what is meant by "reasonably secure." In (b), it is not clear what is a "reasonable level." In (c), it is not clear what is "reasonably suited." In (d), it is not clear what is meant by "generally accepted security procedures."

8 NCAC 10 .0303: SECRETARY OF STATE – The Commission objected to this rule due to lack of statutory authority and ambiguity. In (b), it is not clear what is meant by "reasonable steps." There is the same problem in (b)(3). In (e)(1), it is not clear what is meant by "reasonable precaution." In (g)(3), it is not clear what is meant by "trusted third parties." It is also not clear what is meant by "reasonable efforts" and "reasonably determined." There does not appear to be authority for the Secretary of State to limit parties' rights in dispute resolution. In (i)(1)(vi), it is not clear what other information would be considered relevant. In (j), it is not clear how much maintenance is "reasonable." In (k), it is not clear what security audit firms are "nationally recognized" or what standards the Section will use in approving them. It is not clear how to determine if a security audit firm is qualified to perform a security audit. It is not clear what is meant by "significant" knowledge or experience.

8 NCAC 10 .0304: SECRETARY OF STATE – The Commission objected to this rule due to ambiguity. In (e), it is not clear what secure protocols are "appropriate." In (f)(3), it is not clear who would be a "reputable third party vendor." In (g), it is not clear when a "Strong" and a "Basic" certificate is appropriate and not the other. It is also not clear what is meant by an application's "sensitivity." In (g)(4), it is not clear what is meant by "trusted commercial or governmental data source." In (g)(5)(ii), it is not clear what is meant by a "trustworthy manner." In (h)(1)(i) and (ii), it is not clear what is meant by a "trustworthy procedure." In (h)(2), it is not clear what is meant by a "trustworthy out of hand communication." In (h)(3)(i), it is not clear what is meant by an "appropriate agreement." In (h)(3)(ii), it is not clear what is meant by an "appropriate business site."

18 NCAC 10 .0305: SECRETARY OF STATE - The Commission objected to this rule due to ambiguity. In (k), it is not clear what is meant by "significant security events." In (n)(1)(i), it is not clear what is meant by an "appropriate disaster recovery/business resumption plan." It is also not clear what is meant by "other appropriate documentation."

18 NCAC 10 .0306: SECRETARY OF STATE - The Commission objected to this rule due to ambiguity. In (a)(1), it is not clear what is meant by "appropriate physical security controls." In (c)(1), it is not clear what would constitute a "reasonable assurance of trustworthiness and competence." In (c)(2)(i), it is not clear what constitutes an "appropriate background investigation." It is also not clear when it is necessary after initial employment. In (c)(2)(iii), it is not clear what is meant by "the principle of full disclosure." In (c)(3), it is not clear what is meant by "proper training."

18 NCAC 10 .0307: SECRETARY OF STATE - The Commission objected to this rule due to ambiguity. In (d), it is not clear what is meant by "another appropriate mechanism."

18 NCAC 10 .0701: SECRETARY OF STATE - The Commission objected to this rule due to lack of statutory authority. There is no authority for (b). The agency may not act pursuant to rules which are not only not yet effective, they may not even be adopted. This flies in the face of the Administrative Procedure Act.

18 NCAC 10 .0801: SECRETARY OF STATE - The Commission objected to this rule due to lack of statutory authority. The provision in (e)(3) is contrary to G.S. 150B-23(f) which gives a person 60 days to file a petition for contested case hearing. There is the same problem in (f) and (g)(3) and (4).

18 NCAC 10 .0802: SECRETARY OF STATE - The Commission objected to this rule due to lack of necessity. This rule merely repeats the statutes and adds nothing to what is already in the law.

18 NCAC 10 .0901: SECRETARY OF STATE - The Commission objected to this rule due to lack of statutory authority and ambiguity. In (b)(6), it is not clear what additional information is required by the Electronic Commerce Section. There is no authority to require information outside of rulemaking.

21 NCAC 33 .0106: Midwifery Joint Committee - The Commission objected to this rule due to lack of statutory authority. There is no authority for this Committee to grant limited privileges to applicants who have not yet qualified for approval. The statutes prohibit the practice by anyone not approved. This objection applies to existing language in the rule.

Sandy Webster

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based upon the documents filed in this matter, the exhibits admitted into evidence and the sworn testimony of the witnesses, the undersigned makes the following:

1. Petitioner is a nurse aide and received her initial nurse aide training in high school in Massachusetts. She began working as a nurse aide in 1983. (T p 11) She moved to North Carolina in approximately 1988 and was tested by a State-approved training program in North Carolina in 1991. She has been listed on North Carolina's Nurse Aide Registry since that time. (T p 249; Resp Exh 16). This listing means that she can be hired as a nurse aide by nursing homes in North Carolina. (T p 50)

2. From August 31, 1997 to November 17, 1997, Petitioner was employed as a nurse aide on 5 East, the Oncology Unit, at Rex Health care ("Rex") in Raleigh, North Carolina. (T pp 9-10, 96)

3. While at Rex, Petitioner received in-service training, which essentially covered what she had learned in her initial training. (T p 12) Petitioner received additional training at Rex on how to prepare (assemble and flush with fluid that contains no medication) an intravenous drug administration system ("IV") before use on a patient and how to discontinue a peripheral IV (through the arm) that is connected to a patient when therapy is to be discontinued. (T pp 23, 127-28; Resp Exh 1). Petitioner was aware that these were the only two functions which nurse aides were authorized to perform at Rex. (T pp 23, 121; Resp Exh 9). In performing both functions, nurse aides are required, as a first step, to obtain directions from a nurse. (T p 23; Resp Exh 1). Petitioner had received no specific training in how to prime an IV system which is connected to a patient and Petitioner was not authorized to perform such function even under the direction of a nurse. (T pp 12; 238).

4. Petitioner's job responsibilities at Rex included providing personal care to patients, such as feeding, turning, changing, and ambulating. (T p 13) As a nurse aide, Petitioner worked under the supervision of a nurse. Working under the supervision of a nurse meant, in Petitioner's words, that the nurse is "ultimately responsible" and that the nurse aide was supposed to report off to them anything that we find wrong with the patients, anything abnormal, whether it's their behavior, if they have fallen, vital signs." (T p 13) Nurse aides are required to take direction from a nurse if they perform any task outside the regular assignment. (T p 14).

5. On November 17, 1997, Petitioner worked the 7 p.m. to 7 a.m. shift along with nurses Becky Ermolovich, R.N., Elizabeth Hughes, R.N., and Tim Dion. (T pp 14-15) Ms. Ermolovich was the primary nurse for T.P., a cancer patient on the unit. T.P. had terminal cancer and congestive heart failure. (T pp 254-55) He was on numerous cancer medications and was connected to an IV system which was inserted into a major vein in his chest through a Groshong catheter. (T p 99) (Petitioner testified that T.P. had a peripheral IV in his arm.). His medical record noted that he had a drug allergy. (T p 255).

6. There were two bags hanging on the IV system that was connected to T.P.: a primary and a secondary bag. The primary bag contained a maintenance solution made up of 5% dextrose half normal saline with potassium chloride added and the secondary bag contained Flagyl, an antibiotic. (T pp 14-15, 97; Resp Exh 8).

7. Ms. Ermolovich checked T.P.'s IV and noticed that the maintenance bag was nearly empty. She discontinued the maintenance bag and started the antibiotic which was to run for an hour. She adjusted the flow rate so that the antibiotic could be administered at a rate of 100 cc's per hour. "Flow rate" means the delivery rate or number of cc's per hour that an IV fluid is to be administered. Different medications have different flow rates. The flow rate for the Flagyl is set by the pharmacy according to the strength of the antibiotic solution. The flow rate for maintenance fluid is determined by the physician and is based upon the patient's condition. (T pp 102-03).

8. After setting T.P.'s IV, Ms. Ermolovich left the patient's room to look for another bag of maintenance fluid and found that there was none on the floor. She ordered a new bag from the pharmacy and went on with other duties. (T p 97).

9. An IV bag containing maintenance solution arrived on the floor via the pneumatic tube system. (T pp 14, 98) Petitioner examined the bag and saw that the label had T.P.'s name on it. She checked T.P.'s IV system and thought that the primary bag looked dry. Petitioner testified that the IV alarm was beeping to indicate that the bag needed to be changed but the secondary bag was running. (T p 14, 97) Petitioner looked for one of the nurses to tell them that the bag needed to be changed. There is a nurse on the unit at all times. (T p 105) Petitioner waited approximately five minutes. She then took the bag that had been sent up and hung it and spiked it in place of the primary bag. Petitioner never spoke to a nurse before changing the bag. Petitioner testifies she was trying to be helpful although she realizes she should have waited for a nurse. It took approximately forty-five seconds to change the IV bag and it is not known whether Petitioner used a sterile technique. (T pp 19, 100; Resp Exh 8).

10. Petitioner did not know the exact contents of the solution in the bag but she believes that "there was some potassium in it." (T p 16) Petitioner did not know what medications the patient was receiving at the time. (T pp 14-15) Petitioner did not know whether T.P. had any medication allergies. She did not check the T.P.'s medical record to see what medication the physician had ordered to be administered next. She should not have assumed that just because the new bag had arrived on the floor that it was supposed to be administered next. (T pp 108-09) She did not know the proper flow rate for the medication which she had set up and did not check the medical record to determine the proper flow rate. (T pp 18-19) She was not sure why T.P. was receiving potassium. She believed there was an antibiotic in the secondary bag but did not know at the time what kind of antibiotic. (T p 17) At the time of the hearing, Petitioner could not recall whether or not the secondary bag was running. (T p 18).

11. Approximately fifteen minutes after leaving T.P.'s room, Ms. Ermolovich saw Petitioner in the nurses' station (Resp Exh 8) Petitioner was holding a white card from the maintenance bag and pointing at it. Petitioner said to Ms. Ermolovich "Your bag was empty so I hung it. It's running at the wrong rate so you better go fix it." (T pp 98-99; Resp Exh 8) Petitioner did not realize that the flow rate set on the IV pump was for the antibiotic and that the antibiotic was running at the correct flow rate. Petitioner thought that the maintenance bag was running and that it was running at the wrong rate. (T pp 100, 112).

12. Ms. Ermolovich ran to T.P.'s room to check on him. The new maintenance bag had been hung and spiked meaning that it was connected to the IV system and set to flow. The flow rate had not been changed. (T pp 98-99; Resp Exh 8)

13. Ms. Ermolovich was the only person on the unit who was in a position to know whether T.P.'s labs had been taken and whether T.P. had a critically high potassium level.

14. Nurse aides are not allowed to hang IV fluids on IV's connected to patients because they do not have the knowledge base to understand the potential risks. Hanging an IV for the purpose of giving medication is an activity that has potentially adverse effects on the patient. (T pp 129, 238). The risks include infection, incompatibility and crystallizing in the line, causing a negative reaction between medications or a negative result in the patient. Hanging potassium without knowledge of the patient's condition or the patient's potassium level can be lethal. (T pp 99-100, 129; 297-98; Resp Exh 8). Only licensed health care professionals are authorized to perform IV drug administration in North Carolina. (T p 238).

15. Ms. Ermolovich reported the incident, and Marilyn Manfred Morgan, R.N., the nurse manager on 5 East investigated the incident. Ms. Morgan talked with the charge nurse, Elizabeth Hughes, Ms. Ermolovich and Petitioner. During her conversation with Ms. Morgan, Petitioner admitted to having changed the IV bag because it was empty. She also admitted that she was aware that, as a nurse aide, she was not authorized to hang and spike an IV bag on a system that was connected to a patient. Ms. Morgan had already counseled Petitioner about her role as a nurse aide on at least three prior occasions. Ms. Morgan had informed Petitioner that her role was to collect information and to alert a nurse about any information that she thought was abnormal. Ms. Morgan had specifically instructed Petitioner that she was not to act on her own on the basis of her observations (T pp 120-22, 128; Resp Exh 9). As a result of the facility investigation, Ms. Morgan terminated Petitioner's employment at Rex (T p 122; Resp Exh 9).

16. During her testimony, Petitioner acknowledged that potassium is a medication and that nurse aides are not authorized to administer medications to patients. (T pp 20, 102) She also conceded that no one authorized Petitioner to change the IV bag and that she was not acting under the supervision of a nurse. (T pp 18, 20) Petitioner further testified that she should have waited for a nurse when she found that the IV bag needed to be changed. She testified that the situation was not an emergency. (T pp 28-29).

17. Rex Healthcare reported the incident to the Nurse Aide Registry. Debra Hockaday, R.N., was assigned to investigate the incident for possible abuse or neglect. (T p 253-54) As part of her investigation, Ms. Hockaday went to the facility, reviewed T.P.'s medical records, interviewed Elizabeth Hughes, R.N., Marilyn Morgan, R.N., Beck Ermolovich, R.N., and Petitioner. (T p 254).

18. During the investigation, when asked about the contents of the IV bag, Petitioner told Ms. Hockaday:

I don't remember what it was. It did not have any narcotics. It had to do with potassium. I think they had changed the amount of potassium that they were using on that patient. This was the second bag of the changed dose of the drug. I'm not really sure what it was. (Resp Exh 18).

19. As a result of her investigation, Ms. Hockaday concluded that Petitioner's actions and inactions constituted neglect. (T p 257; Resp Exh 12).

20. "Neglect" is defined to mean: "failure to provide goods and services necessary to avoid physical harm, mental anguish, or mental illness." 10 NCAC 3B.1001(10).

21. Ms. Hockaday specifically concluded that, by hanging the IV bag containing medication on T.P.'s IV system, which was connected and running into a major vein by way of chest catheter, without being trained or authorized to do so, and without the direction or supervision of a nurse, Petitioner failed to do what she had been trained to do and was authorized to do as nurse aide. In acting on her own, Petitioner specifically failed to report the pertinent information, i.e., that T.P.'s maintenance bag appeared to be empty, to a licensed nurse. Petitioner's failure to alert appropriate staff and her decision to hang and spike the medication placed T.P. at risk for potential harm.

22. In January, 1998, Petitioner was hired as a nurse aide at Integrated Health Services of Raleigh (IHS). She worked at IHS from January through July of 1998. (T p 30) IHS is a skilled nursing facility and as such is a health care facility as defined in N.C. Gen. Stat. § 131E-256 (b)(6). (T p 133).

23. Petitioner's basic job responsibility as a nurse aide at IHS was to provide routine care as directed by a professional nurse. One of her duties was to report observations and pertinent information concerning residents to the nursing staff. She was also required to answer call lights promptly and to provide appropriate responses to resident requests. (Resp Exh 13).

24. On May 6, 1998, Petitioner worked the 11:00 p.m. to 7:00 a.m. shift at IHS. (T p 32) During the shift, most of the residents were sleeping but four or five residents, including H.A., were awake. (T pp 344-345).

25. H.A., who was approximately seventy-six years old, was mentally alert and competent, but she had suffered a stroke which left her paralyzed on her left side. (T p 33; H.A.'s Deposition Transcript, p 10; Resp Exh 13) H.A. was not able to get out of bed on her own and Petitioner had never seen H.A. out of bed. (T p 33) H.A. had a catheter inserted for urination and used a bedpan for bowel movements. (T pp 35-36; Deposition Transcript, pp 8, 12).

26. During the shift, between 12:00 a.m. and 2:00 a.m., H.A. used her call light to get a bedpan and Petitioner came to her room. Petitioner was mad because H.A. had already called her several times. Petitioner said in a mean way, "All you do is call. You stop calling so much and go to sleep, or I'm going to put you in a Hoyer lift and make you sit up in the chair all night. I already have one resident sitting up all night." (Deposition Transcript pp 13-14, Resp Exh's 13 and 15).

27. H.A. could not believe that Petitioner would threaten her like this. (Deposition Transcript p13; Resp Exh 15).

28. H.A. did not tell anyone about the incident that night because Petitioner seemed to be very close to Donna Tripp, the nurse on duty that night. H.A. had previously reported to Ms. Tripp that Petitioner did not wear gloves like she was supposed to and Ms. Tripp had done nothing about it. H.A. assumed that Ms. Tripp would not do anything about Petitioner's threat to get her up with the Hoyer lift because she had not done anything about Petitioner's not wearing gloves. (Deposition transcript pp 14, 15, 21-22; Resp Exh 15).

29. H.A. told staff about the incident the next day and she was questioned about the incident by Paul Vitale, the administrator for IHS of Raleigh. (T p 132; Resp Exh 13) H.A. told Mr. Vitale that Petitioner was mean to her and had told her that if she did not go to sleep, Petitioner would put her in a wheelchair all night. (Resp Exh 13) Petitioner also told Mr. Vitale that one of the housekeepers had come in and helped her with the bedpan later. (T pp 142-43).

30. On May 8, 1998, Petitioner was given a written warning for having made a verbal threat against a resident (T pp 147-148; Resp Exh 14).

31. Petitioner responded to the disciplinary action by writing a letter to Mr. Vitale on May 8, 1998. In the letter, Petitioner stated that H.A. had been "on the light all night long" and that H.A. had been "verbally abusive to her." She wrote that she was "tired of all the accusations that have been getting spread around here about me. They need to stop!!!!" Petitioner further stated that her "attitude is just fine; there's no need for adjustment." (Resp Exh 7).

32. H.A. is certain that Petitioner was not merely making a suggestion to her because she was having difficulty sleeping. H.A. is certain that Petitioner was being mean to her. H.A. believes that, if Petitioner threatened her, she would likely threaten other people. (Deposition Transcript pp 20-21, 24).

33. H.A. testified that Petitioner spoke to her in a mean tone and that she had spoken out of anger. As a result of Petitioner's threat, H.A. did not use her call bell for the rest of the night and someone from the housekeeping staff ended up helping her with her bedpan later that night. (T pp 142-43; Resp Exh 15; Deposition Transcript p 13).

34. Debra Hockaday, R.N., investigated the incident involving H.A. on behalf of the Nurse Aide Registry as possible abuse. Ms. Hockaday visited the facility to review H.A.'s record and interviewed H.A., Paula Talley, Suzanne Schroeder, Sue Nosworthy, and Petitioner. (T p 259; see also Resp Exh's 15, 18, and 19).

35. "Abuse" is defined to mean: "the willful infliction of injury, unreasonable confinement, intimidation, or punishment with resulting physical harm, pain or mental anguish." 10 NCAC 3B.1001(1).

36. As a result of her investigation, Ms. Hockaday concluded that, on May 6, 1998, Petitioner verbally abused H.A. by threatening to make her sit up all night if H.A. did not stop using her call light. (Resp Exh 19) Ms. Hockaday concluded that the threat constituted intimidation, punishment and unreasonable confinement. Ms. Hockaday further concluded that Petitioner's threat caused H.A. mental anguish as evidenced by H.A.'s statement that she did not want to have to call Petitioner for the rest of the night and her belief that, if she reported it that night, no one would act on it. (T p 309-311) Residents have the right to use a call bell or light. (T pp 329-30).

37. Petitioner testified that H.A. was using her call bell "excessively." Petitioner explained that by that she meant that H.A. was using her call bell more than three or four times in an eight hour shift. Petitioner testified that, on May 1998, H.A. used her call bell approximately seven times during her eight hour shift. (T pp 31-32) The assignment sheet for the night of May 6, 1998 indicates that H.A. used her call light seven times. (Pet Exh 1B).

38. Petitioner testified that she was not frustrated with H.A. on the evening of May 6, 1998. (T p 343) However, Petitioner stated during the investigation conducted by the Nurse Aide Registry that "everybody was getting a bit frustrated with H.A." and that it was H.A. who was "abusive," and obsessed with her bedpan. (Resp Exh 18).

39. Joan Scarborough, a nurse aide and witness for Petitioner, testified that residents have a right to use a call bell and that nurse aides should answer the call. She also testified that if a resident uses a call bell excessively, the nurse aide should notify the nurse. (T pp 329-30).

40. On July 13, 1998, Petitioner was working third shift at IHS on the Medical Specialty Unit. The Medical Specialty Unit is for residents who require intensive nursing care, including patients who are on ventilators. (T p 147).

41. At approximately 5:30 a.m. on July 14, Petitioner and Donna Tripp, R.N., went into a resident's room to turn and reposition the resident. (Resp Exh 17) The resident, T.J., had been injured in a motor vehicle accident in which his first cervical vertebrae had been dislocated. He was completely paralyzed below that vertebrae which meant that he was a quadriplegic and was unable to breathe on his own. His respiratory muscles were totally paralyzed. He was, therefore, ventilator-dependent. T.J. could move his head a little and could mouth words but was unable to make noises or to verbalize anything. (T pp 147-48, 171).

42. T.J. indicated that he was having difficulty breathing so the two women repositioned him by raising him up in bed to help him breathe. Ms. Tripp then left to get the respiratory therapist. Another nurse, Debbie Brown, L.P.N., came into the room. Petitioner testified that T.J. started having a seizure. Petitioner had never seen T.J. have a seizure before even though she was aware that he had seizures. Petitioner thought T.J. was going to die. (Resp Exh 17).

43. Petitioner told Ms. Brown that she should use the Ambu bag on T.J. The Ambu bag is used to provide manual entilation for a patient. (T p 168) Petitioner then unfastened the velcro which holds the ventilator circuit ("vent circuit") in place at the tracheostomy tube ("trach"). The vent circuit connects the ventilator tubing to the tracheostomy tube, which is placed in the resident's tracheostomy or throat. (Resp Exh 17) Petitioner said that she knew how to disconnect the vent and trach by catching "other nurses." (Resp Exh 18) Ms. Brown grabbed the Ambu bag and Petitioner then removed the vent piece from the trach so that T.J. could be "bagged." (Resp Exh 17).

44. Gary Mascucci, a registered respiratory therapist who was on duty, was approximately thirty feet away from T.J.'s room when he heard that T.J. was having a breathing problem. It took him approximately ten seconds to get to T.J.'s room. (T pp 149, 159, 160, 166) Upon his arrival, he saw Petitioner in the process of removing the vent circuit. The ventilator alarms were alarming because the vent had been disconnected. (T pp 164-65) Mr. Masucci walked over to the side of the bed that the ventilator was on. When he got to the side of the bed, the nurse had the Ambu bag and Petitioner had the ventilator circuit in her hand and approximately twelve inches from the trach. The ventilator was not connected to the resident at all. Mr. Masucci immediately replaced the vent circuit and connected the resident to the ventilator and silenced the alarms. It took about ten seconds for him to reconnect T.J. to the ventilator. (T p 149; 174, 177, 180; Resp Exh 20 and 21).

45. At that point, Petitioner told Mr. Masucci that T.J. was having breathing problems. (Resp Exh 20) Several nurses were in the room by that time. Petitioner stated that T.J. should be "bagged." (T p 172) Mr. Masucci checked the ventilator and did not find any problem. (T pp 150-51) The alarm which signifies that there is an electronic problem with the ventilator itself and had not been activated. (T pp 170-71) The alarms which had been activated were in response to the patient being disconnected from the ventilator. Mr. Masucci increased the oxygen level to a level of 100% and listened to make sure there were breathing sounds in T.J.'s lungs. Based on the sounds in the lungs, Mr. Masucci determined that T.J. just needed to be suctioned. He also decided to give T.J. a breathing treatment. (T p 169-70, 177-78, 180; Resp Exh 20) Mr. Masucci suctioned T.J., without removing the vent circuit, to clear out any secretions and gave T.J. an Albuterol breathing treatment through the ventilator circuit. After the treatment, T.J. indicated that he felt better. According to Mr. Masucci's testimony and the ventilator flow sheet for T.J., Mr. Masucci did not use the Ambu bag on T.J. that day. (T pp 155-57, 163-64; Resp Exh 21) (Petitioner testified and told the Nurse Aide Registry investigator that Mr. Masucci bagged T.J. after giving him increased oxygen. (Resp Exh 27).

46. Mr. Masucci testified that, if T.J. was having a seizure, then he should have been left on the ventilator so that the ventilator could continue to move air into and out of his lungs. Removing the ventilator from T.J. would only cause his condition to deteriorate, perhaps to the point of physical death, because he was not getting any air. [Petitioner testified that the respiratory therapist had determined that T.J. should come off the ventilator. She further testified that she was correct in concluding that the resident needed to be manually bagged. (T pp 53-54, 58)] Only respiratory therapists and licensed nurses are authorized to remove a ventilator circuit from a patient's trach. (T pp 151, 178, 198-99, 207) Joan Scarborough, a nurse aide and witness for Petitioner, testified that T.J. became very anxious and fearful when he was disconnected from the ventilator because he could not breathe and thought he would die.

47. Nurse aides do not do any respiratory care except for suctioning around a resident's mouth. (Resp Exh 21, 24) Petitioner should not have tried to determine on her own what was wrong with T.J. and she should not have disconnected him from the ventilator. Petitioner should have called for help from the professional staff and informed the respiratory therapist of any problems. (T p 195, Resp Exh 25 and 27).

48. Several staff members reported the incident to management because they believed that Petitioner had endangered T.J.'s life. (Resp Exh 27) Suzanne Schroeder, R.N., was the unit manager of the Medical Specialty Unit at the time. (T p 190) She handled the facility investigation with the assistance of Sue Nosworthy, R.N., director of nursing at IHS. As part of the investigation, Ms. Schroeder interviewed Petitioner on July 15, 1998 in the presence of Ms. Nosworthy. During the interview, Petitioner admitted to disconnecting the ventilator but said that she did it because the nurse was too slow in responding. (T pp 194, 205, 221; Resp Exh 25 and 26) Ms. Schroeder asked Petitioner how she knew how to disconnect the ventilator. Petitioner responded:

Well, I've seen it done enough from working as a CNA and I just felt like that was what needed to be done. (Resp Exh 25).

49. Petitioner's employment at IHS was terminated on July 15, 1998 because she had disconnected a ventilator from a patient who was ventilator-dependent and had endangered the resident. (Resp Exh 24).

50. During the hearing, Petitioner testified that she did not actually disconnect or remove the vent tubing from the tracheostomy tube but that she only unfastened the velcro. She testified that, while the velcro was unfastened, she held the trach circuit to the trach. (T pp 52, 333-335) However, during the investigation by the Nurse Aide Registry, Petitioner told the investigator that she "never disconnected anybody from the vent until this." Petitioner also told the investigator, "CNA's are not allowed to do trach suctioning or to take the vent piece from the trach." (Resp Exh 17, p 2) Petitioner also told Ms. Hockaday:

It was because I was trying to save somebody's life; they couldn't breathe. I was going to use the Ambu bag but the nurse took over and was doing it all wrong. (Resp Exh 16).

Petitioner further stated:

I know CNAs are not supposed to tell nurses what to do, but I'm not going to stand around and watch someone die. The Ambu bag was behind the vent, hanging on the wall in reachable distance. I couldn't get the stuff. She eventually got the bag and pulled the Ambu bag out of the bag it was in. Then she looked at it like she didn't know what to do. I told her she needed to turn his oxygen on, meaning the wall oxygen that was not connected to the vent. By that time, Gary had come in, and I had undid the velcro that secures the vent piece to the trach. I started to remove the piece from the trach so Debbie could put the Ambu bag on. When Gary came in he connected the vent piece back to the trach. (Resp Exh 17).

Finally, Petitioner told the investigator:

I was just upset that Debbie had not done anything. It was about 15 to 20 seconds from the time the seizure began until Gary got in there. T.J. didn't breathe until he got back on the vent and Gary made the changes on the vent. (Resp Exh 18 p 4).

51. Petitioner conceded at the hearing that when a ventilator-dependent patient is not breathing, a nurse aide should call for help and wait for trained staff to arrive to direct care. (T p 341).

52. Debra Hockaday, R.N., investigated the incident involving T.J. to determine whether Petitioner had committed abuse or neglect in this incident. Ms. Hockaday interviewed Petitioner, T.J., Gary Masucci, R.T., Debbie Brown, L.P.N., Linda Carlson, LPN., Donna Tripp, R.N., Suzanne Schroeder, R.N. and Sue Nosworthy, R.N. (T p 266).

53. As a result of her investigation, Ms. Hockaday concluded that Petitioner had abused and neglected T.J. by not waiting for direction from a nurse when T.J. was having a seizure and then disconnecting T.J.'s ventilator on her own. (Resp Exh 29) Petitioner failed to wait for appropriate professional staff, including the nurses and respiratory therapists on the unit, and to allow them to make the appropriate decision regarding treatment.

54. Ms. Scarborough, a nurse aide at IHS who testified for Petitioner, stated that if she found a ventilator-dependent patient who was having difficulty breathing, she "would get a respiratory therapist involved immediately and let a nurse know what was going on." (T p 331).

Based upon the foregoing Findings of Fact, the undersigned Administrative Law Judge makes the following:

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The Office of Administrative Hearings has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter pursuant to Chapters 131E and 150B of the North Carolina General Statutes.
2. All parties have been correctly designated and there is no question as to misjoinder or nonjoinder.
3. The North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Facility Services, Nurse Aide Registry and the Health Care Personnel Registry Section are required by N.C. Gen. Stat. §131E-255 and § 131E-256 to maintain a Registry that contains the names of nurse aides and health care personnel working in health care facilities who have committed abuse or neglect against a resident in a health care facility.
4. As a nurse aide and health care worker, Petitioner is subject to the provisions of N.C. Gen. Stat. §131E-255 and § 131E-256.

5. Respondent conducted an extensive investigation into whether Petitioner abused or neglected the patient, T.P., at Rex Healthcare on November 17, 1997; whether Petitioner abused the resident, H.A., at IHS of Raleigh on May 6, 1998; and whether Petitioner abused or neglected the resident, T.J., at IHS of Raleigh on July 14, 1998.

6. On November 17, 1997, Petitioner failed to perform necessary services to prevent harm to T.P. when she failed to notify nursing staff that one of T.P.'s I.V. bags was nearly empty. Instead, Petitioner elected to change the IV bag herself even though she was neither trained nor authorized to hang and spike an IV bag on an IV system that is connected to a patient. Petitioner should have reported to a nurse that the IV bag was empty or nearly empty and she should not have acted on this information on her own. She not only failed to perform a service that is intended to prevent harm to the patient, her actions placed T.P. at risk for potential harm.

7. Petitioner had not been trained in the proper technique for hanging and administering medication on a connected IV. She was not authorized to administer medication. She did not know what medications T.P. was receiving, what his potassium levels were or whether the bag she hung was the next medication that had been ordered by the physician. The potential harm to T.P. included possible infection, incompatibility between medications, and adverse impact on the patient, including a risk of death if T.P.'s potassium levels had been too high.

8. Respondent did not err in substantiating the finding of neglect committed by Petitioner against T.P. on November 17, 1997.

9. On May 6, 1998, Petitioner abused a resident, H.A., at IHS by threatening to make the resident sit up in a wheelchair if the resident did not stop using her call bell. Petitioner communicated the threat to the resident in a mean, angry way. Petitioner's threat was a form of intimidation and punishment against the resident. Residents in nursing homes have the right to use call bells or lights. As a result of Petitioner's threat, H.A. did not feel she could use her call bell again that night. The threat against H.A. caused her mental anguish.

10. Respondent did not err in substantiating the finding of abuse committed by Petitioner against H.A. on May 6, 1998.

11. On July 14, 1998, Petitioner neglected T.J., a ventilator-dependent resident of IHS, by failing to wait for appropriate professional health-care staff when it appeared that the resident was having difficulty breathing and by failing to act under the direction of a nurse. Instead, Petitioner took it upon herself to disconnect the resident from the ventilator thereby preventing him from breathing at all. As stated by Petitioner, her responsibility as a nurse aide is to report her observations and any abnormal conditions to appropriate staff and to take direction from a nurse. Her failure to act in accordance with her training and job responsibilities and her decision to disconnect the paralyzed ventilator-dependent patient was inappropriate treatment and placed the resident at risk of physical deterioration and possible death.

12. Respondent did not err in substantiating the finding of neglect committed by Petitioner against T.J. on July 14, 1998.

13. The evidence does not support Respondent's finding that Petitioner abused T.J., by refusing to wait for direction of a nurse and by disconnecting T.J. from the ventilator.

14. Petitioner was not a credible witness. Her testimony was inconsistent with many of her prior statements.

Based upon the foregoing Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, the undersigned makes the following:

RECOMMENDED DECISION

That the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services adopt the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law set forth above and that the decision to enter substantiated findings of resident abuse and neglect in the Nurse Aide Registry and Health Care Personnel Registry under Petitioner's named is AFFIRMED as set forth in this Recommended Decision.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Office of Administrative Hearings has personal and subject matter jurisdiction of this contested case pursuant to Chapters 126 and 150B of the North Carolina General Statutes.

2. Petitioner is a permanent State employee subject to Chapter 126 (the State Personnel Act) and is a citizen and resident of Biscoe, Montgomery County, North Carolina.

3. Respondent is an agency of the State of North Carolina subject to Chapter 126 (the State Personnel Act) and is the Petitioner's employer.

4. On October 1, 1998, the Petitioner was demoted from Correctional Captain at Southern Correctional Center (hereinafter "Southern") to the position of Correctional Officer with a ten percent (10%) reduction in pay. In conjunction with this demotion, Petitioner was transferred to Morrison Youth Institution.

5. At the time of his demotion, the Petitioner was one of five Captains at Southern. The Captains are next in line in authority at Southern after Superintendent Jay Clark and two Assistant Superintendents.

6. Petitioner's demotion and transfer were made as a result of Respondent's allegations against Petitioner for acts of personal misconduct. The misconduct consisted of alleged acts of sexual harassment and using offensive language in the work place consisting of the word "nigger" and other epithets of a nature that are derogatory toward African Americans.

7. Petitioner was employed by Respondent for approximately nineteen and one-half (19½) years. Petitioner has not previously been subject to disciplinary action during his career.

8. The North Carolina State Personnel Manual contains a policy prohibiting sexual harassment of State employees. The North Carolina State Personnel Manual's Sexual Harassment Policy defines "Sexual Harassment" in the following way:

Sexual harassment is defined as deliberate, unsolicited, and unwelcome verbal and/or physical conduct of a sexual nature or with sexual implications by a supervisor or co-worker which (1) has or may have direct employment consequences resulting from the acceptance or rejection of such conduct; (2) creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment, or (3) interferes with an individual's work performance.

Sexual harassment does not include personal compliments welcomed by the recipient or social interaction or relationships freely entered into by State employees or prospective employees. (Petitioner's Exhibit #1)

9. The Department of Correction's Policies and Procedures Manual, Section IV, "You: The Correctional Officer," includes a subsection governing "Relations Between Employees." This subsection establishes the following policy:

Employees should be discouraged from entering into personal relationships with other staff members. If, however, a personal relationship does develop, supervisory staff must be notified and appropriate action to include transfer of one employee to another shift or facility will be considered. (Respondent's Exhibit #13)

10. Petitioner was first employed by the Respondent in February of 1980 beginning work in Carthage, Moore County, North Carolina. Later, he transferred to Hoke County where he was a Correctional Officer. Petitioner later returned to Moore County.

11. In 1983, Petitioner was promoted to Sergeant and began employment at Southern. Thereafter, Petitioner was promoted to Lieutenant in 1985 and to Captain in April of 1995. Petitioner, in 1999, was demoted to Correctional Officer and transferred which gives rise to this contested case.

12. Upon demotion, Petitioner was first transferred to Randolph Correctional Institution and, thereafter, assigned to Morrison Youth Institution in Hoffman, North Carolina.

13. During his tenure at Southern, Petitioner was given very good and outstanding evaluations. In his entire career with the Respondent, Petitioner was not subject to any disciplinary actions other than the one presently contested.

14. Petitioner was an administrative Captain where his primary responsibility was for transportation of inmates, supervising loading dock personnel, maintaining security on the loading dock as well as mail room security, and performing safety inspections including fire, health and OSHA inspections. Petitioner was not in charge of the day-to-day supervision of inmates or other correctional officers except when both the Captains and Lieutenants on these shifts were out for leave or vacation.

15. Robyne Kelly was employed by Respondent as a Correctional Officer on the second shift and was within the Petitioner's chain of command.
16. Petitioner sometimes referred to others within his employment by such nicknames as "shoog", "baby doll", "honey", "pal", "sugar booger", "friend", "buddy", and "old buddy".
17. Petitioner would sometimes touch male and female Southern employees by patting them on the back, touching them on the arm, or giving them a quick hug. Petitioner touched other employees in this manner as a show of support, respect and affection and did not initiate contact in a sexual way. Petitioner is a friendly person and shows his emotions to those to whom he talks. It was his way of showing Southern employees that he appreciated them. Other Southern employees used similar gestures to fellow male and female Southern employees. There is no evidence that anyone was offended by these friendly gestures.
18. Petitioner grew blackberries, apples and peaches and sometimes he would bring in these products for his employees or would make pastries and desserts from them. He also brought doughnuts and biscuits which he purchased. Occasionally, Petitioner would make biscuits himself for his employees. Occasionally, the Petitioner would purchase coffee from the vending machines for his employees.
19. When Petitioner provided coffee or biscuits, he would place them in the staff dining area for Southern employees, both male and female. Other Southern employees have done the same for Petitioner, as well as for other Southern employees. Petitioner brought biscuits to the staff dining area that were consumed by Robyne Kelly as well as many other Southern employees. Petitioner performed these acts as a show of kindness to his fellow employees.
20. Occasionally, Petitioner would loan money to his employees and he loaned money to Robyne Kelly and others. The amount of the loans were normally in the range of five to fifteen dollars.
21. When Petitioner loaned money to Robyne Kelly, she would ask for the loan for purposes of purchasing gasoline, medication for her children or for other unstated reasons. These loans were made without charging interest. Sometimes they were repaid and sometimes they were not. After a memorandum was issued by Superintendent Jerry Jay Clarke forbidding Southern employees from loaning money to fellow Southern employees, Petitioner ceased loaning money to Southern employees, including Robyne Kelly.
22. Petitioner also kept candy and suckers on his person and would distribute these free of charge to his employees (including chewing gum). Petitioner would also distribute certain medications to his employees such as Goody's Headache Powders or Alka-Seltzer.
23. Robyne Kelly is no longer employed by Respondent and presently resides in Lexington, Kentucky.
24. Robyne Kelly wore earring jewelry which she identified as signaling her lesbian sexual preference. She discussed her sexual preferences with inmates and with other members of the staff at Southern. She discussed her sexual orientation with Petitioner and was admonished on one occasion by Petitioner not to discuss matters of a sexual nature with inmates.
25. Robyne Kelly has openly discussed her sexual preferences in front of Sergeant Wyatt in the Master Control Room in the presence of other Southern employees and she was very open about her sexual preference for women. She discussed this openly both in front of men and women.
26. Gaston Ray Sides was previously employed by Respondent at Southern as a Transportation Officer. On several occasions he had an opportunity to travel with Robyne Kelly by motor vehicle for the purposes of prison transportation. It was apparent to Mr. Sides, based upon conversations that Robyne Kelly had with him and others, that her sexual preference was for women or that she was "interested in women" and that her reputation at Southern was that she was a lesbian.
27. Robyne Kelly brought a gay publication into the unit at Southern to share with openly gay inmates. The newspaper (or magazine) was clearly identified on the cover of the publication as one concerning and depicting gay relationships. The magazine was brought on premises by Robyne Kelly at some point in 1996. She brought it to share with openly gay inmates knowing it was wrong to do so, and one of the Correctional Officers had taken the material from the inmate. Officer Richard Br... communicated this incident to the Petitioner. Robyne Kelly admitted to Petitioner that she did not see any problem with this type of material. In her testimony Robyne Kelly admitted that it was wrong to bring the publication on premises to share with open...

gay inmates but "I did it anyways." Also, in her testimony she referred to the publication as "just a newspaper," "distributed all over town." Petitioner turned the publication over to Robyne Kelly's supervisor. Robyne Kelly was not disciplined for this incident. (Tr. Vol. II p. 31)

28. Robyne Kelly has expressed on occasion to Neil Richard Clark, Correctional Officer at Southern, that she was having a bad day and needed a big hug from a strong man. She said this on several different occasions. On prior occasions, she had hugged Petitioner at her request.

29. On or about the last week of June 1998, Petitioner spoke with Sergeant Diane Wyatt and asked her to send Robyne Kelly to his office. Robyne Kelly was working under the supervision of Sergeant Wyatt. Sergeant Wyatt sent Robyne Kelly according to the Petitioner's directive. On the return, Robyne Kelly had a conversation with Sergeant Wyatt concerning Petitioner. Sergeant Wyatt's testimony on this point is quoted as follows and found as fact:

ANSWER: Yes, sir. She came in the office where I was, and she sat down and began to smoke a cigarette, and we got to talking about the unit in general, and she said that, you know, she enjoyed working on the unit that day and that possibly she would like to work for me on the Denmark unit. And, the more we talked, she said that Captain McCaskill, that he was a nice man and that he was understanding and that we needed more Captains like that. And, she just went on and on about he was such a good person and he was willing to listen. (Tr. Vol. II, p. 33)

30. The reason Petitioner talked with Robyne Kelly was to discuss an incident between Lieutenant Dunn, Sergeant Norden and her. Later, the Petitioner informed Sergeant Wyatt that the meeting had taken place between Robyne Kelly and him and that everything was worked out.

31. Petitioner owns a bass fishing boat and from time to time he would take employees of the Department fishing outside of work hours. This was common knowledge among the employees. Petitioner has taken the following people fishing: Captain Roy Harvil, Officer James Carpenter, Sergeant Neil Clark, Officer John Paul Stewart, Officer Sammie Jackson and Officer Ronald Harris. In total he has taken as many as 15 or 20 employees with him on private fishing outings. He never invited, nor did he ever take any other female employees with him fishing.

32. James Carpenter (black male), has on occasion, fished with Petitioner at Lake Tillery, Badin Lake and Sheron Harris Lake. James Carpenter has also visited Petitioner and his wife in their home a few times when Petitioner's wife was ill. Petitioner assisted Mr. Carpenter at a point in time when his house was burned.

33. Petitioner's wife at all times relevant was suffering from a cancerous medical condition and subsequently died from this condition.

34. Petitioner's office space, which was a cubicle, was in a room approximately 40 feet by 40 feet. Petitioner's office was one of four cubicles in that space. The cubicle next to the Petitioner's was used as a break room. Another one was used for storage. The third one was used as a meeting room, which contained a long table which could seat 16 or 20 people.

35. The break room contained drink and vending machines. On June 24, 1998 Robyne Kelly, Petitioner and certain other persons were present in the break room at Southern. Robyne Kelly issued the following invitation to the Petitioner: "Hey, Captain Mac. How about taking me on one of your fishing trips." (Tr. Vol. II, p. 102) "Everybody else goes." (Respondent's Exhibit R7-84)

36. James Osborne is the lead Correctional Officer at Southern. Officer Osborne was present in the break room on June 24, 1998 and at the time that the Petitioner and Robyne Kelly engaged in an exchange about an invitation to go fishing. Officer Osborne was drinking a cup of coffee with the Petitioner at the time. Officer Osborne observed and heard the Petitioner's reply.

37. The undersigned finds as a fact that the exchange between Petitioner and Ms. Kelly was, as testified by Officer Osborne, as follows:

Question: What did they say? What do you recall she said to Captain McCaskill?

Answer: Other than the fact she asked him when they was going fishing, and, you know, I think Mac basically said he didn't know, and she said, "Well, why don't you take me fishing?" And, Mac said to her, as I recall, he says, "Well, you know what people is going to say if you and I go out in the boat fishing together." ...

Question: After this exchange, do you recall anything else being said between Captain McCaskill and Ms. Kelly.

Answer: Well, I sat there, and Mac had made the remark, you know, what are people going to say? She says, "Well, don't worry about it. Nobody is going to say nothing."

38. Later that day, Petitioner admitted in his testimony that he had further telephone conversations with Robyne Kelly. Petitioner wanted to know why Robyne Kelly approached Petitioner suggesting a private fishing invitation.

39. There were several conversations taking place between Petitioner and Robyne Kelly as to a location for rendezvous and ultimately several suggestions were rejected but there was a focus on one in particular location, the Lilly's Bridge Boat Landing. A rendezvous was suggested for July 3, 1998. Subsequently, Robyne Kelly called and had to cancel that date because her former husband had a death in the family and she had responsibility for her children that weekend. These conversations took place over the phone at the initiation of the Petitioner and some face to face.

40. Every call made after the exchange between the Petitioner and Robyne Kelly in the breakroom was initiated by the Petitioner.

41. Between June 24th and June 29th, 1998, Petitioner called Robyne Kelly at her work station at least two times a day. The follow up telephone conversations between Petitioner and Robyne Kelly occurred between June 25th and June 29th 1998.

42. According to Robyne Kelly, the innuendo of the conversations and the suggestions were clearly of a sexual implication.

43. Robyne Kelly completed an Employee/ Witness Statement Form on 7/2/98. Her admissions in a statement given within a few days of the alleged incident reveal that Robyne Kelly neither refused Petitioner's overtures nor even discouraged Petitioner's overtures. Her statement is quoted, in part, as follows:

Throughout the shift while I was working in Central Control, Capt. McCaskill called me on the telephone, approximately six or eight times. He was talking to me about he and I "getting together," and he was talking about different places we could secretly meet. Since it was obvious to me that he was not joking, I tried to make excuses why he could not come to my house, and I couldn't meet him other places and times because people would see his truck, and my children were home, etc. I knew that I should have told him "no" right off the bat, but he was very pushy, and he took my silence for assent, I think. Although I didn't encourage him, I did not discourage him. During that day, I would make excuses that I couldn't talk to him, because I was very busy, which was the truth. ... He said "You're not going to get me on sexual harassment when we get together are you?" I answered, "No, Captain Mac." He said, "Well, we have to be careful. We can have a good time together and take care of both our sexual needs but we just have to be quiet about it." ... He said "I know or thought you only liked women. Are you thinking of switching to the other side?" I told him "Capt. Mac, I'll always like women; can you blame me? But everyone knows I'm not a man hater." Captain McCaskill then asked, "Well, that's what I thought, so why did you approach me yesterday?" I replied "All I said was 'when are you going to take me fishing? I thought you were a nice guy.'" He said "Well, I'm glad that you approached me. We'll have a good time together, we just have to keep quiet about it. Don't talk to anyone about it." I answered "Sure Capt. - no problem." (emphasis added) (Respondent's Exhibit R7 83-86)

44. Officer Kelly never withdrew her unilateral invitation to accompany Petitioner on a fishing trip outside of the work place or asked Petitioner to stop talking about meeting outside of work, or to stop calling her.

45. Robyne Kelly never told Petitioner that the conversations made her feel uncomfortable.

46. Robyne Kelly continued to work every day that she was supposed to during this time and was not absent from work. Officer Kelly's job performance was not affected by her conversations with Petitioner.

47. Robyne Kelly did not reject nor could she recall her response to Petitioner's direct request to meet him in a motel room:

Question: What arrangement did he suggest as far as meeting that day?

Answer: He said he knew a number of motels that we could go to and no one would see us there or recognize us there; places like that.

Question: What did you say when he suggested that?

Answer: I don't remember what I said. (Tr. Vol. II, p. 107)

48. At no time did Robyne Kelly, according to her own testimony, ever tell the Petitioner, "no", other than to attempt to make excuses or to discourage him. Her testimony was that she never specifically told him "no."

49. In the modular offices where the Petitioner had his office the walls were approximately 5 feet 6 inches and an adult person standing could see over the top of the cubicle. This area at Southern is frequently used and contains a conference room and the break area as well as the supply cabinets. Outside the front door are both the men's and women's restrooms.

50. Petitioner's office remains open for most of the time. It is not difficult for a passerby to see Petitioner sitting at his desk.

51. Debra Waltser overheard a conversation between Petitioner and Robyne Kelly where he offered to purchase a soft drink for her and he also offered to purchase Ms. Waltser a soft drink. On 7-21-98, Debra Waltser gave the following statement (in part):

" Approximately 8:00 a.m. (date not recalled) I entered my work area and noticed Ofc. Kelly and Capt. McCaskill's office. At approximately 9:00 to 9:15 a.m. I entered Capt. McCaskill's office again to do inventory on supplies. Ms. Kelly was still in his office. I went to the supply cabinet to do inventory. I could hear Ofc. Kelly and Capt. McCaskill talking. Nothing out of the way. Really didn't pay that much attention to their conversation. Ofc. Kelly told Capt. McCaskill that she was hungry and was going to the canteen. She ask him if he would like something from the canteen. He said, "Yes, a drink." Capt. McCaskill walked over toward me and ask if I wanted anything from the canteen. I saw him give Ofc. Kelly money to buy his drink. She left and returned shortly with their items. She sat in front of Capt. McCaskill's desk and he was sitting at his desk. He said that he needed to go and do inventory and Ofc. Kelly offered to help him. I heard her say "I had rather do that than go back to the unit," or wherever she was working. At that time Ofc. Kelly, Capt. McCaskill and myself left out of his office. I went to the front office and they went to the staff work area. I returned approximately 5 to 8 mins. later, and Capt. McCaskill met me going in the classification. I inquired about inventory and he advised he didn't have to do it. He said, he didn't have to do supplies. In no way did I witness Ofc. Kelly upset or crying the entire time she was in the classification area. (Respondent's Exhibit 7, P. 47, 48).

52. Robyne Kelly went to Petitioner's office on June 29, 1998 and was informed that she was to do some updating in his safety manual.

53. According to Robyne Kelly's testimony, during this visit Petitioner approached her and gave her a big hug and attempted to kiss her. She pulled away, broke off and left the room. This was the only incidence or complaint of an unwelcomed embrace.

54. Robyne Kelly was upset on that day after this conversation. She appeared to have had tears in her eyes. On this occasion, Robyne Kelly reported that Petitioner asked her to give him a big bear hug for the work that she had just completed and she had stated "No." He then took her by the arm and turned her around and kissed her and she became upset. She further stated that Petitioner had called her on the phone several times a day. She also reported that she had not attempted to stop the calls as the Petitioner was a Captain.

55. Robyne Kelly first reported this incident to Sergeant Clark and thereafter to Sergeant Dennis and Lt. Dunn.

56. Pamela Barbee was working as a correctional officer at Southern on June 29, 1998. She was assigned to Central Control where she operated the mechanical doors. Ms. Barbee observed Robyne Kelly going to the Petitioner's office at around 8:00 a.m. that day. Robyne Kelly remained in Petitioner's office for approximately two hours and 45 minutes. Ms. Barbee observed Robyne Kelly when she returned and described her as upset.

57. Melvin Leon Dunn is a Correctional Lieutenant at Southern. On or about June 29, 1998, Lt. Dunn had a conversation with Robyne Kelly. He also observed her as having moisture in her eyes and her voice was nervous. Robyne Kelly indicated that the Petitioner had been calling her on the phone; making plans for a fishing trip on Friday of that week; and he had hugged and attempted to kiss her.

58. Lt. Dunn reported this to Captain Rape. Lt. Dunn requested that Robyne Kelly complete a statement as to this incident. ( Respondent's Exhibit 7 )

59. Gary Dennis is Correctional Sergeant at Southern. On June 29, 1998, Sergeant Dennis observed Robyne Kelly in master control and she sounded "upset," "crying." Robyne Kelly told Sergeant Dennis that Petitioner had made sexual comments to her. Later after her interview with Lt. Dunn, Sergeant Dennis believed that Robyne Kelly was too upset to continue her job and he relieved her for the day.

60. In a memorandum from Respondent directed to the staff at Southern dated November 14, 1996 from Jay J. Clark as follows:

Employees of this facility shall not under any circumstances, discriminate against other employees with regard to race, sex, religion, national origin, marital status, age or disability. Harassment includes, but is not limited to: slurs, epithets, threats, obscenities, gestures, derogatory comments, off color jokes, race bating, teasing, or inappropriate verbal or physical conduct ( bumping, touching, stroking, cornering, grabbing, hugging, kissing and inappropriate suggestive objects or pictures). Harassment is considered to be deliberate, unsolicited and unwelcomed verbal or physical conduct which creates an intimidating and harmful or offensive environment. Employees shall not direct profanity toward other employees, inmates, probationers, parolees, members of the public, and any other individual they may come in contact with during the course of their employment period. Comments of a sexually suggestive or racially derogatory nature are inappropriate and are considered to be unacceptable personal conduct. Employees shall not intentionally insult others or make derogatory comments to others with total disregard for their feelings. (Respondent's Exhibit No. 2)

61. Before Jay J. Clark was made superintendent of Southern, Petitioner said in the presence of Sergeant Dennis that "When Clark gets here, he will hire so many niggers that we will need a flashlight to see around here". (Respondent's Exhibit 7, P 25)

62. Petitioner denied at the hearing, in his written statements, and in his pre-disciplinary conference that he used the term "nigger" in the work place at Southern. This testimony is not credible.

63. After he achieved the rank of Captain, Petitioner frequently referred to black people using the terms of "blacks", "brush monkeys," and "nigger," in the presence of Sergeant Dennis while on duty at Southern.

64. Petitioner admitted during his pre-disciplinary conference that although he did not recall making any "racial comments" that he "might have slipped."

65. Correctional Officer Darlene Hamilton overheard Petitioner while on duty at Southern talking about an inmate stay as: "Now, isn't that like a damn nigger."

66. Petitioner while on duty at Southern and in the presence of Correctional Sergeant Monroe Porter, referred to black people as "niggers" and "blue gums."

67. Part of Petitioner's duties as a Captain were to make certain that other employees did not use racial slurs.

Based upon the foregoing Stipulations and Findings of Fact, the undersigned makes the following:

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The Office of Administrative Hearings has personal and subject matter jurisdiction over this contested case pursuant to Chapters 126 and 150B of the North Carolina General Statutes.

2. At the time of his demotion, Petitioner was a "Career State Employee subject to the State Personnel Act" within the meaning of G.S. 126-5.

3. Petitioner has the burden of showing by the greater weight of the evidence that Respondent did not have just cause to demote him. In order to disprove Respondent's allegations of misconduct, each allegation must be clearly articulated as to time, place and event so that Petitioner will have the ability to present evidence specific to that allegation. Allegations, not clearly articulated, make Petitioner's burden of proof too onerous to disprove events not clearly asserted or pled. Fundamental fairness requires clear and specific allegations of misconduct because the Petitioner has the burden of disproving them.

4. In using friendly slang terms, such as "shug, honey, baby doll, buddy, pal, etc. to refer to fellow Southern employees, including Robyne Kelly, Petitioner did not commit unacceptable personal conduct.

5. In purchasing coffee or bringing in biscuits for breakfast and placing them in the staff dining area for fellow Southern employees, including Robyne Kelly, Petitioner did not commit unacceptable personal conduct.

6. In lending money to fellow Southern employees, including Officer Kelly, before a memorandum prohibiting the practice was issued, Petitioner McCaskill did not commit unacceptable personal conduct.

7. In giving male and female Southern employees, including Robyne Kelly friendly hugs, pats on the back, etc., Petitioner did not commit unacceptable personal conduct.

8. Petitioner did not commit unacceptable personal conduct in his conversation and action toward Robyne Kelly and did not violate a Department of Correction or Southern Correctional Center policy. His conduct did not arise to the level of sexual harassment which is the gravamen of the misconduct alleged against him by Respondent and Robyne Kelly.

9. The North Carolina State Personnel Manual on Sexual Harassment Policy (Petitioner's Exhibit No. 1) states that: Sexual Harassment does not include personal compliments welcomed by the recipient or social interaction or relationships freely entered into by State employees or perspective employees." This policy does not prohibit social interaction, such as requests to go fishing outside work hours, or personal (sexual or otherwise) relationships freely entered into between employees outside work hours.

10. Robyne Kelly, when making the admitted invitation, "Hey, Captain Mac. How about taking me on one of your fishing trips," clearly requested of Petitioner a welcomed social interaction. It was welcomed by Robyne Kelly because she herself personally communicated to Petitioner the invitation to go fishing. "Fishing" is found to be a type of social interaction. Robyne Kelly freely articulated a request for a social interaction with Petitioner while on State time. If this request was not serious or was otherwise intended as a joke, it was not apparent to the Petitioner.

11. The Department of Correction Policies and Procedures Manual (Respondent's Exhibit No. 13) Section IV, You: the Correctional Officer includes a subsection governing "relations between employees." This subsection establishes the following rules: "Employees should be discouraged from entering into personal relationships with other staff members. If, however, a personal relationship does develop, a supervisor staff must be notified and appropriate actions to include transfer of one employee to another shift or facility will be considered." This policy does not prohibit personal relationships or attempts to enter into personal relationships between co-workers in the Department of Correction but merely discourages them. This policy does not dictate that if a personal relationship exists, either party will be disciplined. It merely states that a supervisor may consider shifting one of the parties to another shift or facility but does not go as far as to mandate such an action.

12. Officer Osborne, an independent witness who has no substantiated or established motive or bias as a witness as to his credibility, added a significant sentence to the exchange between Petitioner and Robyne Kelly in the break room. Officer Osborne testified that immediately following Robyne Kelly's invitation to go fishing, Petitioner replied in Officer Osborne's hearing as to what would people think if the two of them were to go fishing. What could otherwise be asserted as a mere invitation for a social interaction, i.e., to go fishing, took on sexual implications and connotations at that point. According to Officer Osborne's observation and recollection, Robyne Kelly then replied: "Well, don't worry about it. Nobody is going to say nothing". A reasonable person could interpret this remark as an invitation or solicitation to enter into a personal relationship with sexual implications even if this was not intended by the one extending the invitation. Thereafter, according to Robyne Kelly's own testimony, she never indicated that the Petitioner's understanding of her request for a romantic encounter was unwelcomed. She was at best equivocal. According to her own written statements recorded recently after the events at issue, it was reasonable for Petitioner to interpret her responses as potentially consensual and welcomed. It was on or about June 30, 1998, that Robyne Kelly filed a grievance and when this grievance was made known to the Petitioner, it became demonstrably clear to him that his pursuit was unwelcomed. Thereafter, Respondent's management stepped in and this attempted relationship ended. In Petitioner's mind he assumed things that may never have existed, but his assumptions were not ever rebuffed, rejected or sufficiently discouraged to make it understood to the Petitioner that his pursuit was unwelcomed. It was Robyne Kelly who initiated the invitation for a social interaction, and it was not the affirmative act of the Petitioner. She was aware that Petitioner took other employees fishing outside work hours; and she used a familiar name, "Capt. Mac," when addressing Petitioner. She may not have been serious but her own request for a social interaction outside of the work environment was sufficiently serious for Petitioner to request a clarification. Robyne Kelly's response to the clarification: "Well, don't worry about it. Nobody is going to say nothing." Robyne Kelly's unilateral act created the confusion in Petitioner's mind. It was incumbent upon her to affirmatively act so as to clearly dispel Petitioner's misinterpretation. Although Petitioner's subsequent conduct was boorish, it did not give rise to sexual harassment because he was never informed or knew that his conduct was unwelcomed in response to Robyne Kelly's invitation for a private outing with him on a lake.

13. The Respondent's personnel manual does not prohibit romantic relationships and liaisons between employees, although they are discouraged. In fact, romantic, promiscuous and even adulterous relationships are not prohibited outside the work place between employees. Arguably, all romantic relationships, particularly adulterous ones, between employees should be absolutely prohibited, but they are not made so by policy. Until such time as they are absolutely prohibited, conduct of a romantic nature will occur or be attempted within the work place. Conduct which gives rise to charges of sexual harassment becomes actionable largely on the basis as to whether or not it is welcomed or unwelcomed. If the conduct is welcomed (even if adulterous), it is not prohibited in the work place. However, amorous invitations for relationships can become sexual harassment if they are unwelcomed. If the relationship between Petitioner and Robyne Kelly had been consensual, likely nothing would have arisen in this contested case. Robyne Kelly's public invitation for a social engagement outside the work place may have provoked something she did not intend, but she did make her intentions sufficiently clear to Petitioner. She could have made her intentions clear to Petitioner in a number of ways, not the least was to clearly withdraw her invitation. At the point that Petitioner was clearly shown that his overtures were unwelcomed, the attempted relationship ended. Petitioner was entitled to draw the inference that Robyne Kelly's public invitation contained sexual implications or a solicitation by her response, "Don't worry about it. Nobody is going to say nothing," taken together with her failure to ever affirmatively withdraw her unilateral invitation to go fishing with Petitioner, her continuing reticence to rebuff Petitioner, and her subsequent statements: "I should have told him 'no' right off the bat." "Although, I didn't encourage him, I did not discourage him." "You're not going to get me on sexual harassment when we get together are you?" "No." "We'll have a good time together, we just have to keep quiet about it. Don't talk to anyone about it." (McCaskill) "I answered 'Sure Capt. - no problem.'" (Kelly) Stating to the Petitioner that there's "no problem" with having a good time together and keeping it quiet when she understood the sexual implications of his overtures were all but an assent on the part of Robyne Kelly, instead of an unqualified rejection. However, continuing a pattern of conduct with sexual implications after explicitly knowing them to be unwelcomed is an entirely different pattern and often is a basis of a finding of sexual harassment.

14. Petitioner's attempt to embrace and kiss Ms. Kelly were his final attempts to enter into an admitted sexual relationship with Robyne Kelly. In his mind there was a justifiable and reasonable belief that his overtures were welcomed. At that point, his overtures became clearly unwelcomed and subsequently his overtures terminated.

15. Petitioner's conduct towards Robyne Kelly did not create a prohibitively hostile work environment for Robyne Kelly. If she wanted Petitioner's conduct to cease she should have made it clearly known to Petitioner or at least withdrawn her invitation.

r immediately reported him to management. She took none of these simple courses of action.

6. Interaction between custodial staff and inmates are described in Respondent's Policy Manual for Southern:

"Employees will maintain a quiet but firm demeanor in their dealings with inmates. They will not indulge in undue familiarity with them. ... no employee will discuss his/her personal affairs with an inmate." (Respondent's Exhibit No. 14-4)

7. Robyne Kelly's characterization of the events of June 29th are found by the undersigned as truthful in substance. Petitioner did attempt to embrace and kiss Ms. Kelly which she found unwelcomed at that point. On or about this date (and for the first time), she clearly made Petitioner aware that they were unwelcomed. However, her credibility as to the characterization of her innocent intent or joking manner in making the original statement was seriously undermined by her bringing sexually oriented material onto Southern's premises in violation of Respondent's prohibition against undue familiarity with inmates with the specific and expressed purpose to share or give to (openly) gay inmates. She was not disciplined for this, but in spite of her awareness that this act was "wrong," she made the conscious decision to distribute the material anyway. Not only did this act constitute a direct violation of personnel policy but demonstrated her willingness to openly discuss and encourage her views of sexuality, not just with staff, but with inmates who could have used this otherwise private information to gain advantage in interactions with custodial officials or even to use it for leverage or extortion purposes (inmates are aware when custodial staff violate staff/inmate interaction rules). This act, taken in connection with her open discussion of her sexuality with almost anyone who would listen, tarnishes her credibility when she blatantly violated Respondent's policy prohibiting such familiarity with inmates, and then she asserts that somehow Petitioner, with knowledge of the foregoing, should not have misinterpreted her intention for a social engagement as a potentially sexual solicitation on her part, while isolated with him on a fishing pond. Furthermore, her assertions that she was reticent to rebuff Petitioner's subsequent sexual overtures "rings hollow" and lacks credibility because of the ease in which she discussed sexual issues in the work place.

8. Petitioner's hugging and kissing of Robyne Kelly on June 29, 1998 was not so offensive as to constitute personal misconduct to justify demotion because Robyne Kelly had herself requested and consented to hugs from Petitioner previously and Petitioner's conduct was not impermissible until Robyne Kelly specifically informed Petitioner that this type of conduct was no longer acceptable.

9. As it applies to Robyne Kelly, Respondent's other allegations as to telephone calls, physical contact, and conversations containing sexual innuendo all fall within the purview of the allegations of sexual harassment and to the extent that these allegations, the proof and disproof of the same, are alleged grounds for just cause to discipline Petitioner, they too must fail. They cannot justify disciplinary action until Petitioner knew or should have known that his overtures were unwelcomed. Robyne Kelly extended an invitation to Petitioner in the work place for a social interaction. Petitioner's conduct and follow up conversations must be viewed in the context of whether or not they were welcomed. On or about June 29, 1998, he knew they were unwelcomed. His actions from June 27-29 toward Robyne Kelly were his attempts to clarify her invitation made to him in the work place. This pattern occurred for no longer than four days (not weeks or months).

10. Petitioner has failed to show by the greater weight of the evidence that Respondent did not have just cause to demote him for his repeated use of the word "nigger" and other divisive racial slurs while employed at Southern in a supervisor's position.

11. Petitioner's denial of these statements in light of the overwhelming evidence to the contrary is found not to be credible.

12. Because there is conduct on the part of the Petitioner utilizing this language in the work place, there is just cause to demote the Petitioner as Petitioner failed to carry his burden of proof in disproving this allegation and Petitioner's conduct meets the definition of conduct justifying disciplinary action. However, the undersigned finds that this is the only basis for his demotion and transfer. As a consequence, Petitioner's reduction in pay should only be reduced to five (5%) percent as presumptively the ten (10%) percent reduction was based on both grounds. The transfer is appropriate. No harsher punishment was recommended by Respondent based upon his exemplary record of 19 ½ years and none is recommended herein.

13. Petitioner is entitled to reimbursement of his reasonable attorney fees for the portion of legal services rendered in the recovery of back pay.

RECOMMENDED DECISION

The State Personnel Commission should not re-instate Petitioner to the rank of Correctional Captain because the Petitioner failed to prove there was not just cause to demote him when he used the word "nigger" and other racial slurs in the work place at Southern Correctional Center; however, the Petitioner has carried his burden of proof by showing that Petitioner's overtures and actions toward Robyne Kelly did not rise to the level of sexual harassment as there was sufficient evidence in the record to show that his conduct was not unwelcomed at the time and the conduct of Robyne Kelly in creating the invitation for social interaction, never withdrawn, coupled with her subsequent inadequate responses to Petitioner to clearly demonstrate to Petitioner that his conduct was unwelcomed, does not constitute probable cause to discipline Petitioner. Petitioner should be demoted with a five (5%) percent reduction in pay and continue at his present work station but allowed to receive a reasonable attorney's fee for the recovery of five (5%) percent back pay.

ORDER

It is hereby ordered that the agency serve a copy of the final decision on the Office of Administrative Hearings, P.O. Drawer 27447, Raleigh, NC 27611-7447, in accordance with North Carolina General Statute 150B-36(b).
